PREDICT HEAVIEST VOTE IN HISTORY NEXT TUESDAY

'Call It A Day' at South school November 3 and 4

The stage is set, rehearsals ended, and the curtain is about to raise on the Arlington Hts. Village Theater's first production of the year, Dodie Smith's "Call It A Day."

This amusing comedy will be presented in the South school auditorium Friday and Saturday evenings of this week at 8:30 o'clock.

For many weeks a well-chosen cast has been working out the minute details of acting and staging to make this two-night performance a finished piece of dramatic art. The A. Douglas Andersons have been working together with the Village players in preparation for this production.

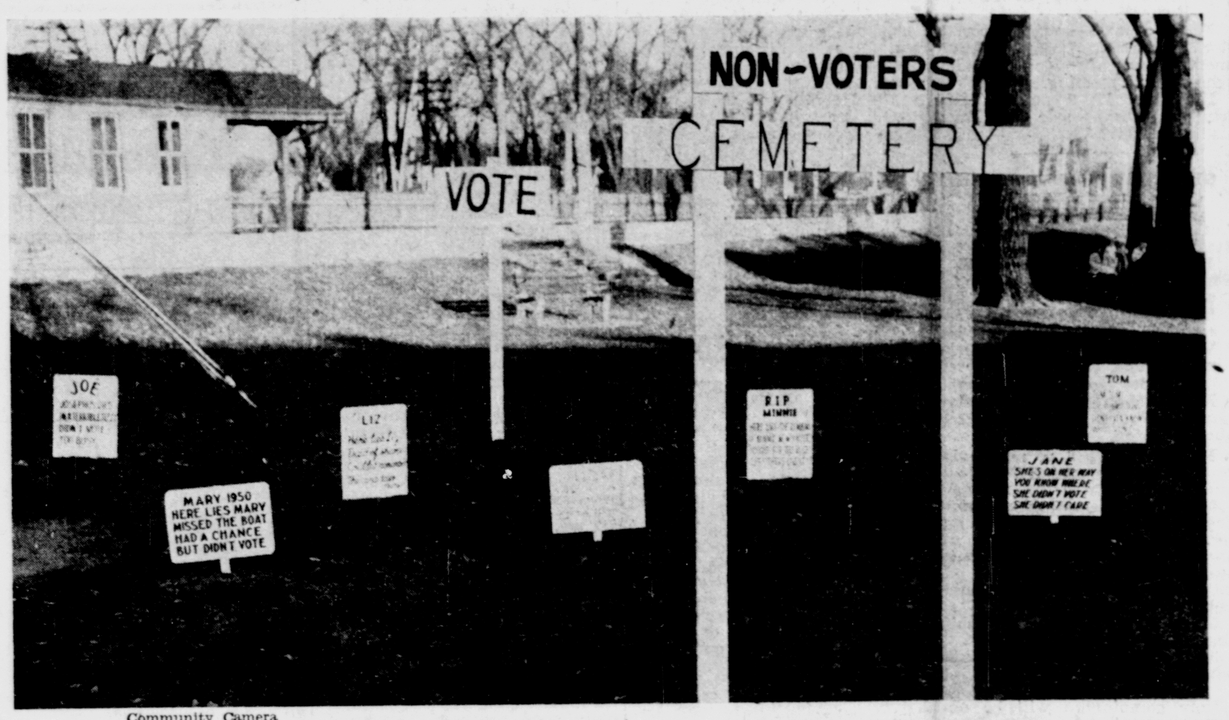

In this presentation, Village Theatre, Inc. and the Arlington Heights Woman's club have cooperated in acquainting the community with the dramatic offerings of the Village Theatre group and in bringing funds into the community's youth center and public library.

Mrs. Walter Patzlaff has been named house manager. The Junior Woman's club will usher for the play. Mrs. Frank Sesterhenn and Mrs. G. E. Staahl have handled the business affairs of the production.

Tickets are still available at the Emerald Shop and the Arlington Heights Pharmacy. Mrs. H. L. Jacobsen, ticket chairman, announces that any remaining unsold seats will go on sale at the door on the evenings of the performances.

Previews of the play indicate two very promising evenings of good pleasure in a play well-done in community projects well-served.

Arlington to vote Saturday on school site

Voters residing in Arlington Heights elementary school District No. 25 will have the unusual experience of voting Saturday on the purchase of a school site to which there is no bond issue proposition attached.

In addition to the fact that there is no bond issue the district is assured a saving of several thousand dollars if the land is acquired before it is subdivided or built on. It is an important election for those who believe in future school planning.

THE SITE includes 5.75 acres and is south of Rockwell street and east of Laurinwood. The approval of the voters to this purchase means that the school district will have both a north and south tract available for future school expansion.

There are two propositions on the ballot. The first describes the proposed site. The second proposition gives the school board the right to make the purchase.

The polling place is at the village hall; hours noon to 7 p. m.

PTA BUNDLE DAYS NOVEMBER 9-10

Bundles of clean, outgrown clothing and shoes will be brought to Public school classrooms November 9 and 10 when the Arlington Heights PTA holds its annual Bundle Day drive.

PTA groups all over the country work through the Save the Children Federation to help clothe some of the estimated 3 and a half million children who do not attend school because they are not adequately clothed.

Last year children in Kentucky received 1300 pounds of clothing and shoes from us. This year the things collected will go to children in Tennessee.

The Bundle Day drive will be handled by the PTA Welfare committee of which Mrs. Frederick Siegel is chairman.

Arlington civic groups engage in get-out-the-vote campaign

Chieftains in both Republican and Democratic camps predict that Tuesday will see the greatest vote in Cook county's history. It is an odd experience to politicians to have the general public become so aroused.

The get-out-the-vote campaign is overshadowing party politics. The average man about the street is paying little attention to claims and counter claims of the party candidates.

"Get out the vote and let the best man win," seems to be the attitude of various organizations who for the first time in their history are contributing cash to a campaign to awaken voters to the importance of going to the polls Tuesday.

A page adv. on the last page of Section four in this issue is an effort on their part to acquaint voters with the background of each candidate. The adv. is non-partisan thruout. Its cost is being financed by contributions to the "get-out-the-vote" committee, which was formed in September.

Sixteen civic organizations met to formulate such a group. Its activities are not confined to newspaper publicity. A "non-voter cemetery" was set-up Tuesday in the park at Davis and Dunton, which hint at dire things that were to happen to those who do not go to the polls Tuesday.

Members of both Woman's clubs will wage a telephone campaign Tuesday. Transportation will be available to all voting precincts in Arlington Heights by calling American Legion phone 1574.

A vote for the Gateway amendment—the blue ballot—in next Tuesday's election is the open sesame to firstclass government in Illinois.

Gateway has many friends in both political parties, in all walks of life. It has one great enemy—inertia. Failure to mark the separate blue ballot is, in effect, a vote against the gateway amendment, since to carry it must have a "Yes" vote from a majority of all citizens who come to the polls next Tuesday.

C. A. Hughes, Cook County Farm Adviser, in a special article that appears on the first page of section three of this issue, covers in detail the importance of voting a favor of the amendment.

Legislation authorizing the vote has done everything possible to insure its passage by the use of colored paper and authorizing election officials to call to the attention of voters their failure to return the ballot to them.

The favorite sons of this area are well covered in this week's Tales of the Street that appear on page 3 of section 4 of this issue.

Chest x-ray in Arlington today and tomorrow

The Mobile Chest X-ray unit of the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County will be in Arlington Heights November 2 and 3.

November 2, it will be located at the Ridge ave. entrance of the high school from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. November 3, it will be at the village hall, corner of Wing and Vail sts., from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m.

Any adult (over 15 years of age) may have a chest x-ray without cost at either location. It is not necessary to undress, and it takes less than one minute to take the picture. Reports of findings will be sent to you.

This service is brought to you by the Arlington Heights Health Center, which is affiliated with the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county.

Mrs. Thelma Carroll R. N. is the public health nurse in charge. She will be assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Rodewald, who is chairman of the Arlington Hts. Public Health Committee, and other volunteer workers.

Appointments for x-rays are not necessary. There will never be much waiting because of the speed with which the pictures are taken.

Award 77 prizes for Hallowe'en window painting

Ghosts, goblins, witches, black cats, fall scenes, corn fields, pumpkins, graveyards and many similar scenes greeted Arlington Heights shoppers last Saturday as they passed through the business district.

STORE windows were painted in the morning by sixth, seventh and eighth grade students from Catholic, Lutheran and public schools in Arlington Heights, as part of the annual Hallowe'en festivities, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Students worked in pairs, each assigned a window space, which the judges knew only by number.

Much thought and originality went into most of the pictures and some of the youngster's paintings showed a great deal of artistic talent. Three awards were given for each grade level, as well as 10 honorable mentions in each group.

First place winners received $5; second place, $3; third place $2; and honorable mention $1.

Winners from the eighth grade section were: 1st—Philip Bakula, Roger Mueller; 2nd—Arlene Gorder, Dorothy Balch; 3rd—Barbara Russell, Carole Hadlund.

SEVENTH grade: 1st—Emily Sherrill, Judy Sherrill; 2nd—Judith Grose, Alice Olson; 3rd—Sandra Stadell, Carol Edelblute.

Sixth grade: 1st—Bob Lenz, Roberta Boyd; 2nd—Jane Holloway, Jane Brant; 3rd—Allan Schmidt, Donald Stadelman.

Honorable mentions from the three respective sections are as follows:

8th—Donna Brodahl, Suzanne Marsh; Donald Hinrichs, Robert Weise; Kay Abel, Nancy Wood; Robert Peters, Lance Jahnke; Gloria Frankhouser, Joan Devries; Bonnie Malchow, Carol Schoepke; Joyce Harth, Ruthann Johnson; Marlene Engelking, Pat Loy; Roberta Landmeier, Julia Meyer; and Peter Holloway, Bill Gregory.

7th—Elaine Boehmer, Arlene Dresmal; Joan Solon, Karen Lacina; John Gregg, Kenneth Helfers; Kay Whitelaw, Jackie Boehner; JoAnn Beatty, Ann Carlson; Leanne Witt, Barbara Bates; Marybeth Born, Maureen Shumaker; Kenneth Waite, Larry Levine; Bill Lussow, Fred Steingraber and Frankie Schuller.

Carmichael to speak Monday at Arlington

John Carmichael, Chicago sports editor, will be the guest speaker at the Arlington Heights Men's club dinner next Monday night.

CARMICHAEL is one of the outstanding writers and speakers on sports in the nation. He has been associated with the Chicago Daily News as a sports writer since 1932, having previously served as a reporter on the Milwaukee Journal, Milwaukee Leader, and Herald Examiner (now defunct). He was born in Madison, Wis. in 1902 and received his college education at Wisconsin university, graduating in 1924.

Among the many sports covered by Carmichael's pen are baseball, boxing, horse-racing, football and hockey. During World War II he went overseas with a troupe of baseball players, including Carl Hubbell, Fred Fitzsimmons and umpire Bill Summers. Connie Mack calls Carmichael the greatest baseball writer in the country.

Carmichael will speak on "The Barber Shop," title of his well known column, started in the Daily News in 1934. Men interested in big league news for next year can attend this meeting and get the inside "dope."

MEMBERSHIP in the Men's club, which meets at the Methodist church, 404 N. Dunton, is open to all men in Arlington Heights. Reservations for Monday night's dinner, to be served at the church at 6:30 p.m., can be made not later than Friday of this week.

Tickets are $1.75 and may be purchased at Millay's or from any member of the Men's club. Reservations may also be made by calling Arlington Heights 647-M.

Invite public to high school open house tonight, Thursday

The public is invited to attend the Fall Open House of Arlington Heights township high school tonight, Thursday, at 8 o'clock.

The evening's program will begin with an assembly in the auditorium. At this time the high school a capella choir will entertain the group with a Tkach arrangement of "To Thee We Sing" and a Montague arrangement of "Joshua Fit de Battle of Jerico."

FOLLOWING THE musical numbers, a panel discussion will be held on the topic, "The School Serves Its Community." Participants on the panel will be Bruno Waara, Harold Slichenmyer, Mrs. Hazel Faulkner, John Schaff, Alfred Snap, Wallace Grace, Miss Mary Handlin, and E. F. Laurin. With the exception of the last-named, who is president of the Board of Education, the speakers are members of the high school faculty.

LeRoy J. Knoeppel, principal of Arlington Heights township high school, will act as moderator. A short question-and-answer period will follow the panel.

AT THE CLOSE of the program in the assembly, teachers will convene to their classrooms to meet the parents. At 9:45, refreshments will be served in the cafeteria.

Plans for the Open House have been in charge of the Public Relations committee with Miss Jeanne Fretz as chairman. Assisting Miss Fretz on the committee are Miss Helen LaPat, James Cockrum, Frederick Schmoyer, Miss Mary Handlin, R. Fleet Combs, and J. D. Bryson.

Banks get two holidays

Election day, November 7, and Armistice day, November 11, both legal holidays, give the banks in Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Wheeling and Palatine two holidays next week.

Mt. Prospect State bank, which ordinarily closes all day Wednesday, will remain open Wednesday of next week, due to being closed Tuesday. Palatine National bank, on the other hand, will remain closed as usual Wednesday, as well as being closed Tuesday and Saturday. Wheeling State bank and Arlington Heights National bank will close, as usual, at noon Wednesday.

Rodewald's News Agency moves to new building

Rodewald's News Agency has now moved into its new building at 211 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. The agency's old store on Davis st. has been closed.

Lutheran education week at St. Peter school November 5-12

Lutheran Education Week will be observed at St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights, from November 5 through November 12.

A special event during the week will be the showing of the motion picture "The Sickle or the Cross." The picture was made at the Hal Roach studios, Hollywood and played by a talented cast of top-ranking actors. It will be shown at the South Public school November 7 at 8 p.m. The movie shows the conflict between Christianity and Communism.

November 10 the Mother's club will have its monthly meeting at 8 o'clock, and immediately following the meeting parents will be given an opportunity to visit classrooms and to discuss problems. The teachers will be in their respective rooms.

November 12, at 10:45 a.m. a special children's service will be conducted. All children are to report to their respective classrooms by 10:30 a.m. so that they may be taken to the church in a group.

Noble J. Puffer ends campaign with attack of appendicitis

Noble J. Puffer, candidate for election to his old position as Cook County Superintendent of Schools expects to "get outdoors" on next Tuesday, for the first time after his operation for appendicitis. He told a reporter, "I have a friend for whom I want to cast my vote."

Mr. Puffer was taken ill last Thursday noon. In spite of illness he filled afternoon and evening speaking engagements. On reaching his home in Barrinton about 10 p. m., a physician was called who ordered his removal to Sherman hospital, Elgin, where the operation was performed. He was able to return home Wednesday morning.

University of Illinois Sinfonietta in Heights concert November 6

The University of Illinois Sinfonietta on November 6 will present a concert to the student body of Arlington Heights township high school in the afternoon, will conduct a music clinic for high school students of the local and neighboring high schools later in the afternoon, and will present a concert for the general public in the evening.

The group is conducted by Bernard Goodman, Musical Director of the University of Illinois orchestras. The sinfonietta is an instrumental ensemble composed of 33 artist students and graduate assistants from the School of Music at the University of Illinois. Frank Pytlik, class of '50 of Arlington Heights township high school, is a member of the group.

THIS OUTSTANDING musical ensemble was organized in the fall of 1947 for three major purposes: first, to provide an opportunity for the advanced students enrolled in the School of Music to rehearse and present an abundance of fine literature under the direct and personal supervision of artist staff members; second, to make available to the state by which the University of Illinois is supported, a mobile orchestra ensemble of professional caliber which would be able to present at least a limited number of concerts over the state during each school year; and third, to bring to the 20,000 students attending the university, a series of several concerts each year which would include considerable music by contemporary American composers.

The University of Illinois School of Music is making rapid strides in all phases of musical development. For many years, the band department at the university has been recognized as one of the nation's finest. Now, with the addition of a great many outstanding teachers in all branches in music, the School of Music is also attracting national attention for its fine work in composition, voice, piano, organ, stringed instrument instruction, and orchestral development.

Village board and CC directors have an off-the-record talk

Members of Arlington Heights village board were guests Thursday evening of the board of directors of Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce. Following a dinner at Simsons, both groups "took down their hair" in off-the-record discussions of ways that the business men and the village dads can benefit each other.

It was evident to a reporter, who was listening-in, that the village board does not relish being a "lone ranger" in civic affairs. That body cannot be expected to do all the fighting for projects that need doing. There will be less delay when the board members know that there is a group back of them.

The suggestion was made that the Chamber of Commerce take the initiative in the formation of a permanent advisory committee which will be ready to advise the board on important projects and will actively support such recommendations.

The Chamber of Commerce thinks that a comprehensive street lighting plan should not be made to wait for street widening and is ready to do a bit of "selling" of that project to business frontage owners.

Kiwanis party next week at Fred's place

A "Monte Carlo Night" has been announced by the Arlington Heights Kiwanis club for Saturday, November 11, 8:30 p.m., at Fred's Place, Rand rd., 3 miles northwest of River rd. Bids are $5.00 per couple and may be obtained by calling Arlington Heights 1515.

Let us honor a 'real fighter'

(AN EDITORIAL)

In an upstairs bedroom at 100 S. Emerson st., Mt. Prospect, County Commissioner William Busse is waging a fight for his early recovery in order that he can continue the service that he has given to Cook county for half a century.

There is not a person who is at all familiar with Mr. Busse, or who is acquainted with his work on the County Board, who is not admiring him for the battle that he waged in the Evanston hospital and for his determination to keep up his fight for a return of health.

He is a grand man. He has the admiration of members of both parties. In past elections, Mr. Busse campaigned vigorously for his party ticket and for good government in public affairs.

Next Tuesday the voters of both political parties have the opportunity to honor Commissioner Busse by giving him the greatest vote he has ever received for that office.

Commissioner Busse's candidacy is probably not in jeopardy, but a tremendous majority over all other candidates would be an expression of the admiration that his home area has for Bill Busse—the campaigner—the public servant—the citizen who, for fifty years, has kept his public record so clean that it has never been questioned.

New additions to North, South Public Schools to be open for inspection

New junior high addition (above) to South Public school, Arlington Heights, to be open to the public during an open house November 12. The section with the floor length windows houses the all school cafeteria and looks out on a black-top play court.

The one story structure (left) shown in this photo is the new addition to North Public school, and will also be open for inspection. The length of the new addition runs along St. James st., and the rear of the building faces Evergreen st. The latter area between the building and the street will furnish a separate playground for kindergarten students.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 5, will be:

ADAM AND FALLEN MAN

The Golden Text is:

"O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity" (Hos. 14:1).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon, the following are from the Bible:

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit . . . The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together" (Rom. 8:1, 16, 17).

The Lesson-Sermon includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"As in Adam (error) all die, even so in Christ (Truth) shall all be made alive . . . The problem of nothingness, or 'dust to dust,' will be solved, and mortal mind will be without form and void, for mortality will cease when man beholds himself God's reflection, even as man sees his reflection in a glass . . . In divine Science, God and the real man are inseparable as divine Principle and idea . . . When speaking of God's children, not the children of men, Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is within you;' that is, Truth and Love reign in the real man, showing that man in God's image is unfallen and eternal" (pp. 545, 126, 476).

A great time was had at both Arlington Heights Cub pack meetings last Friday. Pack 232 had their Hallowe'en program with all the Cubs in costume. Pack 255 put on Navajo days. More Indians appeared when the induction ceremony was put on by Den 3. Every den had a dance and the winner was Den 8.

The Library Corner

Arlington Heights Public Library hours: Monday through Friday: 3 to 9 p. m. Saturday: 3 to 6 p. m.

Two charming new books of family life in the country provide interesting and amusing reading both for those who do, and those who do not prefer country life.

"The Country Wife" by Dorothy Van Doren is the story of a university professor, his wife and two sons, and their varied experiences in living on a farm in Connecticut. It covers the whole gamut of the amateur trying to become professional—and also tells in a lighthearted and witty manner about the delights, and concerns, of matrimony and parenthood. Nineteen illustrations by Mimi Koroch are decorative and amusing.

"The Home Place" by Fred Gipson is another tale of the best in American life. When Sam Crockett's wife died and left him in the role of mother and father to his growing boys, he decided he wanted them to grow up in the country of his youth. He returned to the mortgaged three hundred acres and the abandoned house of his boyhood in the Texas hills. This is the story of the youthful exctiements of hunting, fishing, and battles of wit and cunning with wild and domestic animals—and it also includes a very human assortment of neighbors.

Both of these books are recommended for young people, as well as adults.

Lay plans for 1950 Christmas seal campaign

A committee to assist with details of the Christmas Seal campaign in Arlington Heights was announced by Mrs. John Allen, 116 W. Euclid, local chairman of the 1950 fund-raising drive.

The campaign is sponsored by the Arlington Heights Public Health committee. Named to Mrs. Allen's committee were Mrs. G. Rex Volz, co-chairman; and Mrs. Marvin Rodewald.

The committee will devote its activities largely to publicizing the drive for funds to help fight tuberculosis and to obtaining volunteers to man Christmas Seal booths.

A meeting of the 53 county town Christmas Seal chairmen was held October 26 under the sponsorship of the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county, the local affiliate of the National Tuberculosis association.

The committee leaders heard Leigh Mitchell Hodges, distinguished writer and lecturer and sole survivor of the four founders of the Christmas Seal sale in America, describe the history of the Seal and the part it has played in the fight aaginst tuberculosis.

Also speaking at the meeting was Herbert C. De Young, Institute president, who explained how Christmas Seal funds are spent.

Working girls, young mothers invited to tea at Presbyterian church

The younger women of the Community Presbyterian church, Wheeling, have been invited to a tea Sunday afternoon, at 3 p. m., in the church. This marks the beginning of a new association of the younger women of the church.

Mrs. M. Miller Kelm, chairman of the organizing committee, will present a brief outline of the purpose of the meeting and of the group and indicate the ways in which it is thought the group will operate.

This meeting grows out of a need indicated at the Fall Planning Conference, for a gathering in which the younger women who often work during the day, or who must be at home with small children, may come together in an evening meeting to share their life in the church.

Such a plan does not attempt to supplant in any way the work of the Ladies' Society, but recognizes that there are many who are prevented by various reasons from participating in the Ladies' Society. It, therefore, provides a way in which they may participate in the life of the church in addition to public worship.

Elementary schools open house November 12; invite community

N. M. Lattof, president of the board of education of District 25, Arlington Heights, has announced Sunday, November 12, from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m., as open house for the new Junior high school and the Primary Addition to the North school. Every citizen of the community is urged by the board to spend that afternoon with his neighbors inspecting the new school facilities.

THESE BUILDINGS are already attracting wide attention from educators and members of boards of education in other communities. Particularly noteworthy are the simplicity of design of the buildings, the many features which make them functional and at the same time attractive, and the economies effected through the use of modern building materials and through duplicate use of existing facilities.

The Junior high school building, which was occupied with the opening of school September 11, houses the 290 sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students from the whole district. There, students spend approximately one-half of each day with their home room teacher and the other half day in arithmetic, science, and health classes and in instruction in special subjects such as art, home economics or shop, and physical education. Careful planning has provided for the students and their teachers to have the use of special facilities and yet to provide for practically continuous utilization of all parts of the building.

The primary addition at the North school embodies the best provisions for primary children. The rooms are simple and compact, yet each includes a sink, display case, individual or nearby lavatories, adequate storage space and display space, and windows which bring the outdoors into the clssrooms.

WORK ON the buildings was begun in October, 1949, and is expected to be completed by the date of the Open House, which the board feels represents unusually good progress. The buildings were designed by Ganster and Hennighausen, architects. Major contractors were: General, J. Emil Anderson, Chicago; Plumbing and Heating, Stewart & Nielson, Cary; Elecrical, William A. Frye, Lake Forest. Many items, such as furniture, chalk boards, cork boards, were supplied by E. W. A. Rowles and Arlington Seating Company, local firms.

The Board of Education is anxious to have the community evaluate the results of this major effort to provide good educational facilities for the children of their community and urge every citizen to accept their invitation for Sunday, November 12.

Language teachers to attend association meet at N. U. Chicago campus

Miss Margaret Firth, Miss Donna Marie Volz, and C. J. Gallant, members of the language department of Arlington Heights township high school, will attend the annual meeting of the Illinois Modern Language Teachers association on the Chicago campus of Northwestern university November 4.

The main address of the morning will be given by Professor Harvey L. Johnson of Northwestern university on the topic "Cultural Relations between the United States and Other Nations." The speaker at the luncheon meeting will be Professor M. Spann of the language staff of Northwestern university.

The French sectional meeting in the afternoon will be based on the topic "The American Student in France" and will feature reports on life in France by several students who have studied abroad.

The German sectional meeting will feature reports on experiences in Germany this summer by four students.

The sectional meeting in Spanish will consist of a panel discussion on the topic "Cultural Contributions of Spain and Spanish America to our Heritage."

Wheeling Home Bureau

The Wheeling unit of the Home Bureau will meet October 26 at the home of Mrs. Evangeline Crane. Assistant hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Loraine Kehe and Mrs. Julia Hershey, who served coffee cake, apricot bread, brownies and coffee. These goodies were made from a basic mix, which was used as a demonstration for the major lesson of the afternoon.

The minor lesson, "Easy Stitches," was given by Mrs. Rindlisbacker and Mrs. Nelson. They showed the basting stitch used for decorative purposes.

Two special lessons were announced: November 2 at 10 a. m., Christmas decorations at the home of Mrs. Martin Meyer, and November 9, Decoupage at the home of Mrs. Fred Kehe.

November 11 members of the Wheeling Unit of the Home Bureau will entertain their husbands at a pot luck supper in the basement of the Farm Bureau building.

Early California tunes in Choral concert

One of the colorful and tuneful skits to be presented by the Prospect Heights Choral Society in their sixth annual concert at the Arlington Heights high school November 19, will open with two men on stage representing padres, singing in Spanish.

Early California will come to life, from Spanish times to the lusty gold rush days, as the act progresses and brings in tunes of folk origin and by Stephen Foster.

With all in costume, a dance, the varsoviana, will be performed by four couples as the music goes on. Dancers will be Betty and Wayne Mitchell, Betty and Bob Randolph, Betty Talbot and Dave Terrill, Gloria Chyrchel and Walter Daube.

The concert will begin at 8 p. m. and tickets will be available at the door or from any member of the chorus.

To attend English confab

Miss Hazel Beverly of the English department of Arlington Heights township high school will attend the conference of the National Council of Teachers of English at the University of Illinois November 3 and 4.

Dr. Dora V. Smith, Professor of Education at the University of Minnesota, will speak at the Friday evening meeting on the topic "An English Curriculum for Today's World." The Saturday meetings will consist of discussion groups on various phases of curriculum problems and trends. Dr. Paul Landis, Professor of English at the University of Illinois, will entertain with several readings at the Saturday luncheon.

VFW urges citizens, business houses to display American flag

Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 981, Arlington Heights, urged citizens and business houses this week to show more respect for the American flag by displaying it on National holidays.

"We have had many complaints that citizens show an indifference to our flag by not displaying it on National holidays," said S. Greschner of the VFW, "and many fail to stand or pay tribute when our National anthem is being played."

Armistice Day, November 11, will be observed in Arlington Heights with a special service at the flag pole, corner Davis and Dunton aves., at 11 p.m. All organizations are invited to participate. Those planning to take part should meet at the National Guard Armory, 209 N. Dunton at 10:30 a.m., from where they will march to the flag pole.

It is hoped that everyone having a flag will display it on this occasion. Further details about the service will be published next week.

De Paur Chorus thrills Community Concert crowd

by WILMA SCHMOYER

An enthusiastic reception greeted the dePaur Infantry chorus last Thursday evening when Community Concert association members heard this great choral group at the Arlington Heights Township high school auditorium.

It was a thrilling musical experience for the 1100 who gathered that evening to hear male ensemble singing at its best. The thirty voice Negro chorus sang with vitality, understanding, and reception, and had the rare ability to convey the mood and message of each song they sang. The group's leader, Leonard de Paur, was an extremely resourceful conductor and the instinctive harmonies which his chorus imparted was wonderfully effective.

In light tan battle jackets and black dress trousers, the chorus made an outstanding visual impression. Vocally, they were even more impressive, beautifully balanced, rhythmic, and possessive of a distinctive tonal quality.

They presented a varied program including works by contemporary composers, folk songs from Latin America, songs from World War II, Negro spirituals and work songs, and "Songs of Faith." Some of the numbers which received much applause were: "Ugly Woman," dePaur's arrangement of a Calypso ballad from Trinidad, "The Duckworth Chant," (heard in the training camps during the war and sung to the stamp of feet), and "Roger Young," de Paur's arrangement of Frank Loesser's war song. There was an abundance of excellent soloists.

Closing with the Malotte-de-Paur version of "The Lord's Prayer," the program will long stand out in many local music memories.

550 turn out for YC Hallowe'en party

Hallowe'en night at the Youth Center was an exciting and busy evening again for 550 of its current 625 members. This was the fifth annual Hallowe'en party to be successfully staged by this group, each based upon a carnival theme.

No charge is made for admittance, but membership cards must be displayed, whereupon each party-goer is given a packet of play money with which to try his skill at such games as dart throwing, buckley-bucket, ball throwing, or bean guessing. Other booths featured a live-turtle race, hot dog race, raffle tickets, fortune telling and bingo.

GIFTS CARRIED home by winners included Big Ten football tickets, Ice Follies tickets, a record album, boxes of candy, wearing apparel, leis, bats and noise makers.

Music for dancing was furnished by George Fanelli and his popular orchestra. A floor show comprised of a musical quiz by the orchestra and a Freshman Review emceed by Bob Ellis and featuring singer Jack Lee, tap-dancer Mona Stadel, and an Al Jolson pantomine number by Barbara Ryan, concluded the evening's activities by 11:45. Jim Blackburn was the talent show manager.

Other committees were headed by Jean Beatty, publicity; Carol Cox, decorations; Ken Krueger, Mike Theis, Warren Lattof, Bruce Collard, Bob Virgil, and George Davajon, managers for setting up the party; and Jim Amann, clean-up.

THE COMMITTEE of parents and other adults who worked at the booths and in other capacities during the evening was headed by Mr. and Mrs. William Franke and included the following:

Membership in Barber Shop quartet still open

Arlington Heights' newest singing group, the Barber Shop Quartet class in the adult evening school, is adding new members each week, and now has a regular director in the person of Joe Bryson, Lion's club president and staff member of the high school.

The group meets every Monday night from 8 until 10 p. m. in the music room, No. 206, of the high school. Plans are underway working toward a public program some time in the spring, at which all chorus members will take part, and outstanding barbershop quartets from elsewhere in the state will be invited to appear.

George Glow and Ira Parker are co-chairmen of the group and announce that newcomers are still invited to join the group. Registrations can be completed next Monday evening before class.

NEW NEIGHBORS .... IN THE CITY OF GOOD NEIGHBORS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fine
609 S. Chestnut

When Bob Fine was transferred to Chicago last spring by his company, his most immediate problem was, of course, to find a home for his family. His wife followed up ads in the newspapers and one day came to Arlington Heights. She just "happened" to see the attractive white frame ranch style home they now own and was immediately taken with it.

A puppy named Happy was just about the first thing the Fines bought when they moved into town, for they had promised their three-year-old son, Dickie, a dog when he came here from the family home in Yonkers, N. Y.

Mr. Fine is district sales manager of the Kerr Manufacturing company, a firm which makes dental supplies.

A hobby the Fines share is dramatics, and Helen is already active in the Village Theatre, Inc. Bridge is another of their favorite pastimes — when they can spare time from their new home and ever-demanding yard.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Jones
612 S. Highland

The Joneses are also from Yonkers, N. Y., but did not meet the Fines until they both were househunting in Chicago. The Fines brought the Joneses to Arlington Heights to look around, and though they had intended to cover the suburban area, once they visited here they looked no farther. They, too, decided they had found just the house they wanted in the town where they wanted to live.

Business occupies most of Mr. Jones' time now, for he is vice president, secretary and treasurer of the Brandon Equipment company, manufacturers of railroad supplies.

Mrs. Jones is most interested in interior decoration and is in the process of redecorating her home. She plans to enter a course in interior designing soon. She also knits, sews, crochets, and has really enjoyed her garden, because, as she said, though she had a yard in New York, nothing would grow, but they thrive here.

Theodore Krefts to observe 50th wedding anniversary

Community Camera

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kreft of Arlington Heights will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary November 12 at an open house held at the home of their only son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kreft of 210 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights.

All of the Krefts relatives, friends and neighbors are invited to attend, and the Krefts will receive their guests between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Kreft were wed November 15, 1900, in St. Peter Lutheran church. They were the second couple married by Rev. Noack. (Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Klehm were the first.)

Born here in 1873, Mr. Kreft believes he is the oldest native of Arlington Heights. The place of his birth was a farm on Euclid st., in the section that is now Eastwood. He operated a milk route for three years and was in the cement block business for 17 years. Mr. Kreft also believes he is one of the oldest subscribers to Paddock Publications. He has one brother living, Fred Kreft of Iowa.

Mrs. Kreft, who is 71 years old, was born in Elk Grove. Her maiden name was Sophia Scharringhausen. She loves flowers, and enjoys working in her garden, and her husband is a baseball enthusiast and enjoys listening to the games on the radio. Both are members of St. Peter Lutheran church.

The Krefts have three grandchildren, Roger, Karen and Nancy.

The Music study group of the Arlington Heights Woman's club will have an opportunity to learn more about the Egyptian Music Camp at DuQuoin, Ill., when they meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William K. Andrew, 305 Hillside ave., Prospect Heights. Mrs. F. L. Kolb will be co-hostess.

Mrs. E. J. Baumruk, state music chairman of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, will be there to tell her story of the camp's successful music accomplishments.

Of interest locally will be the appearance of two high school scholarship winners, Frances Zollner and Robert Runyon, who because of outstanding music achievement were selected to win the awards offered by the Junior and Senior Woman's clubs of Arlington Heights. These awards made possible a one-week's attendance at the Egyptian Music Camp. Frances Zollner will present her version of a week at camp and Robert Runyon will play a baritone horn solo. He was a first winner in the state high school music contest held at Quincy, Ill., last spring.

Xmas decorations to be shown at Garden study group meeting

A pre-holiday program is being offered November 9 to Arlington Heights Woman's club members by the Conservation and Garden study group.

"Christmas Decorations," always a popular subject for homemakers, will be demonstrated by Mrs. Edwin Haberkamp of Mt. Prospect.

The meeting will convene at 9:30 a. m. at the Arlington Hts. field house.

Hostesses will be Mrs. B. R. Babbitt, Mrs. Harry Balch, Mrs. George Glow, Mrs. Ira Parker, and Mrs. N. B. Parsons.

Legion Auxiliary notes

Membership dues for Merle Guild unit 208, American Legion Auxiliary of Arlington Heights, should be paid promptly to Carolyn Messenger, membership chairman.

The Auxiliary urges all citizens to go to the polls and vote in the election next Tuesday.

The November business meeting will be held November 6 instead of 7 because of the election.

Newcomers

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Radamacher and two children of 1105 N. Princeton, Sherwood subdivision, joined this community the end of June when they moved into their beautiful new, spacious brick and stone ranch type home, surrounded by a wide expanse of lawn.

The Arlington Heights area is not a new one to the Radamachers; however they did much looking around before settling here. For some reason this spot seemed to be like a magnet; it kept drawing them back, and 1105 N. Princeton was the spot they chose. They formerly resided on the northwest side of Chicago.

Their two children, Ricky, 12 and Janice, 4, are delighted with their new home, surroundings and school. Ricky is a pupil at St. Peter's school and Janice is a member of the Nursery school.

Mr. Radamacher is an accountant for the Chicago Rawhide Manufacturing Co., and is a golf enthusiast. Both Mr. and Mrs. Radamacher enjoy cards, reading and bowling.

Parties

Bill Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bradford, gave a Hallowe'en party Friday evening. Six of his friends from sixth grade came in costume. They were Tommy Thackery, who was dressed as a Chinaman and because of his unique and clever costume was awarded first prize for being the most original. The second prize went to Dick Stolp, who bounced in as that famous gal, Aunt Jemima. The other guests were Bob Lockwood, Don Plank, Dick Anderson and Tom Jacobsen. They played traditional Hallowe'en games and later enjoyed refreshments.

Not to be outdone by her big brother, Caroline Bradford had her Hallowe'en party Saturday afternoon. Her guests were her playmates of the 800 block on Harvard. They, too, played games and ate, and each child was presented with a prize before the afternoon was over.

The Norman Crandalls were hosts at a cocktail party Saturday evening before they left with their guests, the Stephen Paddocks and the Bruce Silchers for the Cotillion Dance.

Bridge Club

Mrs. Paul Doane was hostess to her bridge club last Monday evening. Her guests were Mrs. Paul Mulvaney, Mrs. John Bills, Mrs. Victor Duch, Mrs. Marion Janis, Mrs. Norman Crandall, Mrs. Kay Klamm and Mrs. Kenneth Strickler, guest, of Cleveland, Ohio, formerly of this community. Mrs. Joseph Miller and Mrs. Ed Mueller were unable to attend that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Garasha and children joined a family celebration feting Mrs. Clarence Garasha, mother of Mr. Garasha, on her birthday in Chicago Sunday.

Arlington Crest Card Party

A card party will be held at 8 p. m. in the basement of the home of Dr. Cyrus Hill, 220 Williams ave. The purpose is to raise funds for a new community house. Tickets may be purchased from the members of the Arlington Crest association, or by calling Mrs. Fred Liessman, ticket chairman, at 382-M.

House Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher and family, formerly of Appleton, Wis., now on their way to their new home in Philadelphia, are guests of the William Fisher family. He is a brother of Mr. Fisher.

Dr. R. H. Williams of Granville, Ohio, father of Mrs. John A. Lindstrom, visited the family for a few days recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Hack of Lansing, Mich., were guests over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Duch and family.

Mrs. Merle Jenson of Fort Dodge, Iowa, aunt of Mrs. William Frost, spent a week with the family recently. Col. Robert Frost also stopped over for a short visit on his way from Tokyo to Washington, D. C. After he reports to Washington, he will return to his home in Anchorage, Alaska. He is a brother of Mr. Frost.

Guests of the L. B. Hendricks, while attending the Medical Convention in Chicago, were Dr. and Mrs. Fuller of Tuscon, Ariz.

Miss Kay Stanton of the north side of Chicago was a guest over the week end of the James Colvins.

Attend football game

Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Anderson enjoyed the Notre Dame-Michigan State game at South Bend Saturday. It was an exciting game and they were hoarse from yelling.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Weber and family were thrilled with the excellent performance of Shipsted and Johnson's "Ice Follies" Saturday evening. Lynn, especially, was spellbound at the wondrous feats and gorgeous costumes and scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rachner (formerly Jean Blackburn) are moving this week to their new apartment on the northwest side of Chicago. They are excited about buying furnishings for their first new home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ehrke and daughter spent the week end in South Haven, Mich., visiting Mrs. Ehrke's mother and sister, Mrs. F. R. Sawyer and Miss Ruth Sawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lindstrom entertained at dinner recently in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coughenour of Rockaway Beach, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison and son, Bill, returned recently from a delightful three week's trip to California. Most of their time was spent visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cagle and son, Bobby, of Stockton, Calif. Unfortunately Grayce and her family did not move into their new home until this week, so her parents and brother were unable to see them settled in it. Little Bobby was overjoyed to see his grandparents and uncle, with whom he had formerly made his home. Grayce asked to be remembered to all her friends back in Arlington Heights. Before returning home the Morrisons also visited friends in Los Angeles and a niece in Rosemead, Calif.

FAVORITES For FLAVOR

by HESTER KLINE

Fresh, homemade doughnuts are welcome any time of the day. Serve them when a friend drops in for a visit, for party refreshments, between meals or as a special breakfast treat.

A good doughnut has a crisp, well-browned crust. It is tender and rich, but never greasy. Careful mixing of ingredients is essential to success. But even more important, doughnuts must be fried at the correct temperature. The best way to eliminate guesswork entirely is to use a deep fat frying thermometer. When it registers the temperature called for in the recipe, it's time to fry the doughnuts.

A new thermometer made entirely of stainless steel has a round, dial-type face. When fastened to the frying kettle by its adjustable clamp, the face is as easy to read as a clock.

For doughnuts that are feather-light and fragrant, try this easy-to-make recipe.

Doughnuts

3 tablespoons shortening
¾ cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
¾ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
3½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon

Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs and beat until fluffy. Add milk and vanilla. Mix until smooth. Stir in flour, sifted with salt, baking powder and cinnamon. Chill dough to make it easier to handle. Place part of dough on lightly floured surface and roll out about 1/3 inch thick, handling as little as possible. Cut with floured doughnut cutter. Fry in deep fat heated to 365 degrees F. Drop doughnuts into fat a few at a time. Fry until golden brown, turning once. Lift from fat with long, two-tined fork. Drain on absorbent paper. Just before serving, coat with granulated or confectioners' sugar, if desired. Makes about 2½ dozen doughnuts.

Legion Post to hold Armistice Day dance

Armistice Day will be the occasion of the first of many American Legion festivities planned for the coming season. Merle Guild Post 208 of Arlington Heights will hold its traditional Armistice Day dance at the Mt. Prospect Country club November 11.

Music will be furnished by Jack Ketter's orchestra. Dress is optional and the public is invited. Tickets may be purchased at Jim Millay's, corner of Dunton and Davis sts., from any American Legion member, or at the door at three dollars per couple.

Commander Bob Bishop intends to hold a series of free square dances at the Legion Home again this year. The first of these dances will be held November 18 (instead of November 4, as originally planned) at 8:30 p.m. There is no admission charge. All Arlington Heights veterans and friends of the Legion are invited to attend.

AAUW urges 'yes' vote for blue ballot in election

Local members of the American Association of University Women, northwest suburban branch, urge every citizen to vote in the November 7 general election. Now, more than ever before, every voter should go to the polls, so that he may express his enjoyment of the American privilege of voting in free elections for candidates of his own choice.

At a recent meeting of AAUW, legislative chairman Mrs. F. P. Kays asked members to volunteer for work at local voting places, especially to help increase the vote for the Illinois Blue Ballot.

What is the Blue Ballot?

"Each voter will receive a separate ballot, blue in color, that contains the proposed Gateway Amendment to the state constitution," explains Mrs. Kays.

"If this important amendment is to be adopted, a majority of the voters must vote 'yes.' To obtain the needed majority vote, more voters must go to the polls and vote 'yes' on the special blue ballot. Failure to vote on the blue ballot is the same as a 'no' vote."

Practically no group, civic, social or legislative, is opposed to the Gateway Amendment, it is said. Lawmakers of both major parties are backing the amendment.

The Gateway Amendment, a revision of Section 2, Article 14 of the Constitution of Illinois, would do away with the encumbered, outdated amendment process in the following ways:

Provision of present Constitution:

1. Amendments to not more than one article may be submitted at any session

2. Requires the vote of a majority of all electors voting at the election.

3. The form of the ballot for submitting Constitutional amendments is determined by action of the General Assembly.

Compare this to the following:

Changes made by proposed Amendment:

1. Amendments to not more than three articles may be submitted at any session.

2. Requires the votes of a majority of all electors voting at the election or of two-thirds of those voting on the proposition, whichever is less.

3. Future amendments would be submitted either on a separate ballot or in a separate column on the ballot.

Eli Skinner chapter of DAR meets in Heights Nov. 2

Members of the Eli Skinner chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will meet November 2, at the home of Mrs. C. Howard Mills, 205 Drury Lane, Arlington Heights, at 1:30. Co-hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. George Schneberger and Mrs. Howard Brower.

Mrs. A. E. Woodruff, a former state officer and present chairman of the DAR Citizenship Manuals for the Fourth Division will speak on "Covered Bridges."

At this meeting the need for participation in the campaign to get out the vote in the coming election will be stressed. Mrs. Don B. Stockdale, regent, will report on the Fourth Division Roundtable meeting held Oct. 13 and the opening meeting of the North Shore Chapter of the Highland Park DAR at which regents of the Fourth Division were guests. Mrs. Ralph Church, Republican candidate for representative from the thirteenth district of Illinois spoke at the meeting.

Each member of the chapter is asked to bring a child's Christmas gift and good used clothing, bedding, etc., to be sent to a DAR approved school. An approved school is one which is owned and operated by the DAR in an area where there are no other educational facilities available.

The Eli Skinner Chapter contributes to the support of the Kate Duncan Smith mountain school at Grant, Ala., and the mountain school at Tamassee, S. C. The Kate Duncan Smith school was founded by the Alabama Daughters in 1924 and is an accredited day school of 12 grades with an enrollment of 545 pupils drawn from a radius of 100 miles. The girls work in Minor Practice Cottage under the supervision of the home economics teacher, and the boys are trained in modern farm methods supervised by the vocational agriculture teacher.

A public health nurse is employed for the benefit of the school and the mountain people. The school at Tamassee is a boarding school at which food, clothing and education are furnished and has an enrollment of 386 pupils.

Marvin Zoellick takes Shirley Taylor as bride

In a double ring ceremony October 28, Miss Shirley Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of Palatine, became the bride of Marvin Zoellick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zoellick of Palatine.

The wedding took place at St. Peter Lutheran church in Arlington Heights at 7:30 o'clock, with Rev. L. V. Stephan officiating. Ottomar Kolb was the organist and Mrs. Mary Laseke sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." The church was decorated with two baskets of white and yellow mums and pompons.

The bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with a peter pan collar, buttons to the waist, long sleeves and a train. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of white mums and lily of the valley.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Ward Kelsey, was matron of honor. She wore a bronze taffeta gown with a peter pan collar and buttons to the waist, and carried a bouquet of yellow mums and pompons. Her headpiece was of braided taffeta to match her gown.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Marvin Taylor, sister-in-law of the bride, who wore a light green taffeta gown, and Miss Doris Poetsch, who wore dark green. They also carried bouquets of yellow mums and pompons and wore braided headpieces to match their gowns.

Two cousins of the bride, Judy and Sandra Etters, were flower girls. They wore yellow silk dresses and carried bouquets of yellow mums and pompons. Their headpieces were pompons and baby mums. Ronald Mueller, cousin of the groom, was a ring bearer.

The groom's brother, Herman Zoellick Jr., was best man, and the ushers were Marvin Taylor, brother of the bride, and Stuart Werner.

The bride's mother wore a brown taffeta dress and the groom's mother wore green. Both had corsages of yellow mums and roses.

Grothman photo

A reception for 350 guests was held at the Buffalo Grove Catholic school basement, and music was furnished by Mel's orchestra. Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vanderburg and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Janavitz of North Prairie, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grewel of New Holstein, Wis.

The bride and groom are making their home in Palatine.

Three showers were given recently for the bride. The first, a miscellaneous shower, was given by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Herman Engelking of Arlington Heights. Three friends of the bride, Vernette Schinkowsky, Diane Lonk and Mrs. Robert Koziol, also gave a miscellaneous shower, then a pantry and linen shower were given by Mrs. Ward Kelsey, Mrs. James Taylor and Mrs. Marvin Taylor.

Ruth Elizabeth Gieseke christened recently

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gieseke Jr. of 530 S. State rd., Arlington Heights, had their seven-weeks old daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, christened Sunday afternoon at their home. Rev. L. V. Stephan officiated. The baby was named for her maternal grandmother.

The sponsors were Mrs. . W. Morland of Valparaiso, Ind., and Mrs. Fred W. Gieseke Sr. of Arlington Heights, the baby's grandmothers, and Mrs. Elroy Winkelman and Mrs. Ray Lemke.

A buffet supper was served following the baptism. All members of both immediate families were present for the event, including those from out of town: Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Slesser and two children, Janet and Carl of Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Shimek and daughter, Frances Ellen of Franklin, O.; and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Morland and daughter, Anita Leigh, of Bremen, Ind.

Exchange vows at St. Peter church

Mrs. Emma Niemeyer of Arlington Heights and Frank Dzur of Chicago were married in a quiet ceremony October 28 at St. Peter Lutheran church. Rev. L. V. Stephan officiated at the 5:30 o'clock wedding.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Karstens of Arlington Heights.

A dinner was held at the Lutheran school dining hall at 6:30 for relatives and close friends. The couple will make their home at 3315 N. Long ave., Chicago.

Dinner party

October 24 the worthy matron and patron of Arlington Heights OES chapter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Voss, entertained their officers and escorts at a dinner party. It was held in the private dining room at Cor-Del's, where an elegant dinner was served. The tables were decorated in autumn colors and two horns of plenty laden with fruit formed the centerpiece. Each guest received a special Hallowe'en favor. This dinner was given in appreciation of the cooperation the officers have given their leaders. Cards and dancing followed the dinner.

Celebrations

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duenn observed their fourteenth wedding anniversary Saturday night by attending the Ice Follies with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wenholz of Chicago, who were also celebrating their seventh wedding anniversary that night.

Susan Belcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Belcher, celebrated her second birthday, October 15. Mr. and Mrs. Jere Cason of Chicago, her godfather and godmother, were dinner guests of the Belchers that evening.

Business trips

Victor Bedingfield is on a business trip to New York City. He will also visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. G. L. Bedingfield, who live in New York.

R. W. Fox is attending the Insurance Underwriters convention in Omaha, Neb. He will return Friday.

Tuesday night Mrs. George Jorgensen entertained the members of the American Legion Auxiliary at her home. The guests played games and cards, and refreshments were served.

Guests

A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Belcher was William Rote of Foxboro, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shanklin had as their guests Sunday through Wednesday of last week Mr and Mrs. Riley Houk of St. Louis, Mo. Last week end they had as guests their nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davidson Jr., of Iowa City, Ia. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson Sr. of Colorado Springs, Colo., were also their guests last week end and are still visiting here.

Week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mills were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Branson and son, Merl, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hudson of Rensselear, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Barrett of Morenci, Mich.

Exhibit dolls

Wednesday Mrs. C. H. Mills gave a doll exhibit and talk on dolls at the County Achievement Day in Veedersburg, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. James Yates and family spent last week end at their cottage at Lake Koshkonong, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Freeman and children accompanied them and helped Mr. and Mrs. Yates take their sailboat out of the water.

Mrs. Harvey Daggett of Long Beach, Michigan City, Ind., formerly of Arlington Heights, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Schmitt in Mt. Prospect. She is also visiting her parents and friends in Arlington Heights.

Monday evening Boy Scout troop 32 gave a Hallowe'en party for Girl Scout troop 20 at the Presbyterian church.

Miss Lucille Hagman, former North school teacher and now teaching at Illinois State Teachers college, Normal, Ill., was the week end guest of Miss Marian Elliott. Saturday they enjoyed attending the Northwestern-Wisconsin football game in Madison, Wis.

Tenth birthday

Miss Patricia Thompson celebrated her tenth birthday by having a party for several of her girl friends of Arlington Heights and Sally Rinneman of Glencoe at her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bollero's farm in Palatine. A highlight of the afternoon for the guests was riding Pat's pet pony.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George L. Pfingsten entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Kopplin Sr. and Mr. and Mrs Alfred Samuelson of Chicago in honor of Mrs. Pfingsten's birthday, which was Tuesday.

Mrs. Louis Pedersen was among the guests attending the fifth birthday party of her granddaughter, Donna Rae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pedersen of Edgebrook.

Mrs. Mae Dueball recently had as her guests Mrs. Virginia Bishop and sons, Dennis and David.

Recuperating

Miss Corrine Schild, third grade teacher at the South school, is recuperating at her home in Park Ridge after undergoing an appendectomy at the St. Francis hospital in Evanston last week.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pedersen drove to Lima Center, Wis., to visit friends. They had dinner in Darian, Wis., before arriving in Lima Center.

CIRCLING THE TOWN

BY PHYLLIS KNIGHT

Saturday morning's most diligent workers—the boys and girls of the Junior High school who participated in the window decorating contest—entertained the shoppers while they painted and enhanced the interest in store windows during this past week.

The addition of color to the drawings this year added greatly to the attractiveness of the displays. Designs ranged from the traditional witches, pumpkins and cornfields and ghosts to poems and more modern fare.

In this Chamber of Commerce sponsored competition prizes were awarded for each classification—sixth, seventh and eighth grades—and winners received $5, $3, or $1.

The high school crowd had their innings on Hallowe'en night when the Youth Center presented its annual party.

Run on a carnival basis, the party offered teen-agers both chances to try their skill and to win prizes offered by the merchants. Competition was heated but didn't cost a cent because scrip was provided to all contestants.

Dancing was the gay climax to the evening, with George Fanelli's popular band back for a return engagement. Robert Hawley of Arlington Heights is a member of this band, and Sally Opela sang with them Tuesday.

While high school boys and girls frolicked at the Youth Center, adults of the community for the most part stayed home to be properly frightened or properly amused by the small fry who appeared in costume making their offer of "tricks or treats."

A good thing—a good cause

The magazine drive at Arlington Heights township high school is now in full swing. The students are competing as individuals and as part of their classes for prizes and special awards.

This magazine subscription campaign has the added blessing of the Chamber of Commerce, and it is the only one they have ok'd this year.

By letting high school students take their magazine subscriptions, both new and renewal, local people can do a service to the school, to the students and to themselves.

Open house No. 1

Tonight, Thursday, the high school will inaugurate the 1950-51 series of school open houses. In addition to visiting the classrooms, parents and other interested friends of the school will hear and see a program in the gym.

The well-liked choir will sing preceding a panel discussion of "Extension Services of Your High School." Members of the faculty and school board will participate.

Ten days later on Sunday, November 12, the public is invited to visit the public elementary schools to see the new additions on which finishing touches are now being put.

Clean up time

Next week it'll be "clean up time" in Arlington Heights again. That's when the maintenance department of the village cooperates in the plan to get the town spruced up for winter.

On Monday and Tuesday the village trucks will pick up rubbish on the South side of the railroad tracks and on Thursday and Friday they'll cover the north side.

Everyone is asked to have rubbish on the curbs in boxes or baskets convenient to handle.

People are talking about

The graveyard of non-voters in railroad park. This is surely a graphic way to remind people to vote.

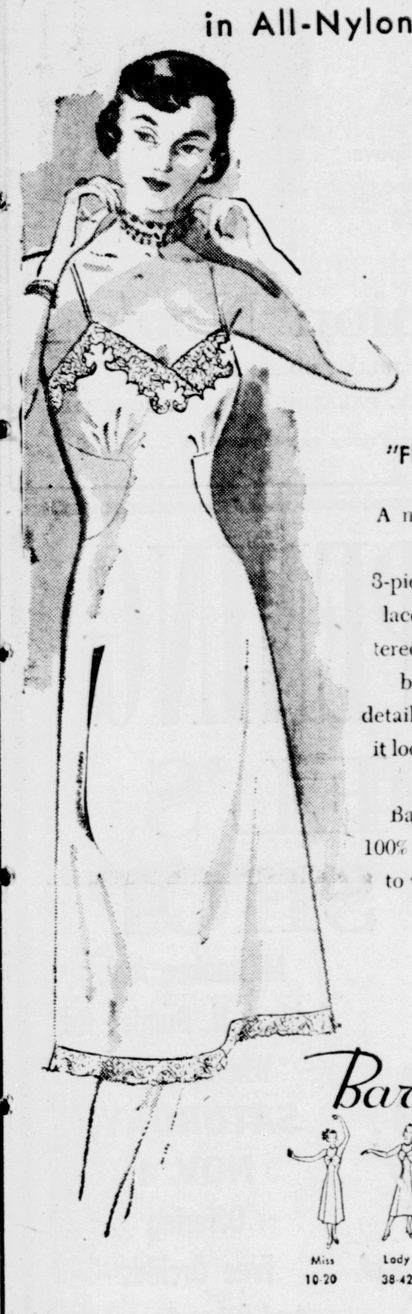

Stork feathers

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman H. Evans of Los Angeles, Calif., announce the birth of their son, Dan Alton, born October 29. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Evans of 2235 Center st., Northbrook, formerly of Arlington Heights.

October 18 a daughter, Pamela Sue, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson of 950 Patton ave., Arlington Heights. She arrived at the St. Joseph hospital in Elgin and weighed 5 pounds 9 ounces.

Pamela Sue has two brothers, Wayne, 7, and Bonnie, 2, and sister, Nancy, 1 year old. Her only living grandparent is Mrs. F. O. Merrill.

An alert dog who warned her mistress' family of fire in their Prospect Heights home was awarded the Ken-L-Ration medal for Distinguished Dog Heroism Thursday, Oct. 26.

The canine medal winner is a bright-eyed 2½-year-old of mixed ancestry who answers to the name of "Suzie." She belongs to Diana Schuetz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Schuetz, 311 Elmhurst rd., Prospect Heights.

PRESENTATION of the medal to her pet highlighted Diana's 14th birthday celebration. Suzie finished off her dog food dinner with a bit of the birthday cake.

The medal was presented by Bayne Freeland, 200 S. Edward st., Mount Prospect. A member of the Quaker Oats Company's public relations staff, he gave the medal in the name of the makers of Ken-L-Ration. With it was a citation signed by Quaker Oats President Donold B. Lourie, congratulating the dog and her mistress on Suzie's service to humanity.

Diana is a freshman at Arlington Heights township high school.

Suzie earned her medal on the evening of September 25. She dozed on a rug while Diana, her parents, and her brother, Terry, 9, were seated in the living room. Mr. Schuetz' mother, Mrs. Della Schuetz, was asleep in a bedroom.

SUDDENLY Suzie rose and growled at the closed door leading to the bedroom wing. Diana tried to quiet her, but the dog became more insistent. Finally heeding Suzie's excited barking, Diana heard "a cracking noise" beyond the door.

Mr. Schuetz investigated and found a waste basket ablaze in the bathroom. Flames leaped high and licked against a wall. He suffered burns on both hands in lifting the burning basket from the floor to the bathtub, where it was extinguished. Cause of the fire was undetermined.

The Schuetz home was undamaged, thanks to Suzie's alert persistence.

Heights ag students attend FFA meeting

Ronald Botterman, Norman Silge, LeRoy Moellenkamp, Kenneth Jacobsen, and Arnold Grimm attended the Section VI, FFA Officer's Leadership Training school in Woodstock October 25.

Donald Linneman, class of '50 of Arlington Heights township high school, presided at the meeting. Sixteen high school chapters of the Future Farmers of America attended.

Discussion groups were held on the following phases of FFA activities: "Supervised Farming," "Community Service," "Co-operative Activities," "Scholarship," "Recreation," and "Earnings and Savings." At the next section, group meetings were held at which officers met to discuss their responsibilities and duties. Sectional meetings were held for presidents and vice-presidents, secretaries, treasurers, reporters, and sentinels.

National Guard positions open to local boys

"Get in the Guard" is a slogan that you will hear continuously for thirty days, starting November 1. On that day, the new National Guard will launch a nation-wide recruiting campaign to enlist 45,000 new men to fill up its ranks. Young men who heed the slogan will associate themselves with a proud heritage—older than the nation itself, yet as modern as jet aircraft the National Guard flies.

Here in Arlington Heights young men will find the opportunity to get in the Guard in Arlington's own unit.

The Guard's tradition of service to its country in times of emergency goes back to 1636 in Massachusetts when the Old North Regiment was formed from trained bands already in existence. In Puerto Rico, the present Guard units trace their ancestry back to 1510 when Ponce de Leon commanded a citizen company for the Island's defense.

Five Presidents have been members of the guard. George Washington was a lieutenant colonel in the Virginia regiment at the time of Braddock's Defeat. Andrew Jackson led 2,000 militiamen against the British in the War of 1812. Abraham Lincoln commanded a militia company in the Black Hawk War. Chester Arthur was quartermaster general of the New York militia in the Civil War. President Truman was a National Guard artillery captain in France during World War I.

The history of each of the 48 States is dotted with the names of its sons who have served as citizen-soldiers, both at home and abroad. Their service to State and Nation is a constant source of pride.

In war, the National Guard has fought in all of our major battles, from Lexington and Concord to Leyte and Cologne. In peace, the National Guard has fought fire, flood and disease, bringing relief to thousands in time of disaster.

Ultimate strength of the new National Guard is set at 684,000 men in 27 divisions, 12 air wings, 21 regimental combat teams, and supporting combat troops. They will be an M-Day force, trained and equipped for immediate action in any national emergency.

In only three years of reorganization, the National Guard has already grown to a strength of more than 355,000, a strength greater than that which the Guard took into World War II. Objective of the "Get in the Guard" campaign is an additional 45,000, the limit to which it can expand under current appropriations.

The young man who gets in the Guard today will be serving himself as well as his country. He will train with modern Air Force and Army equipment. He can participate in a generous retirement plan. He will augment his civilian income at Regular Army and Air Force rates of pay. There is opportunity for advancement, too, as he increases his skill.

The new National Guard has earned the support of the community and the nation it serves. Moreover, it offers to the individual, advantages he cannot find elsewhere. Without reservation we subscribe wholeheartedly to this recruiting campaign and urge all eligible men to follow the advice of its slogan: GET IN THE GUARD.

20 ARLINGTON SENIORS IN FINAL HOME STAND FRIDAY

Bensenville can regain 'face' at Northbrook Friday night

Barrington out for 3rd straight title

by G. A. McELROY

The Northwest Conference season comes to a close this coming week end. Barrington is already assured of their third straight championship and their game with Antioch Saturday on the new Broncho field may turn into a onesided rout as the Sequoits have beaten only Wauconda this season. Very likely the Bronchos will use this game to give Steve Roake, their candidate for all-state end, a chance to establish league pass catching and other offense records.

In last Saturday's crucial win over Grant, Roake caught his eighth touchdown pass to nip the Bulldogs in the final three minutes. Dan Osinski tossed his 11th scoring pass of the season on this play. A victory over Antioch will be Barrington's 24th in a row and the string continues into a fourth season. The varsity game will be played at 2:00. At 12:00 Palatine's froshsophs who lost a previous meeting with the Bronchos at the time the varsity teams met, will again take on Barrington.

GRANT, 5-1, meets Palatine, 4-2, at Fox Lake Saturday night. If Grant's priming for Barrington has the usual effect the Bulldogs will not be up for the game with the Pirates. Still they rate at least a two touchdown edge with one of the best passing attacks in the league and certainly the best flock of fast and shifty open field runners. Grant lost their star center, Roger Smith, who was taken to the hospital after the Barrington game with a concussion.

The Pirates lost a 7-6 decision to Northbrook last Saturday and will go all out in an effort to close the season with an upset of the Bulldogs for it would give them a tie for second place. A loss drops them behind Northbrook if the latter wins from Bensenville and should the Bisons win there would be a three way tie between Palatine, Northbrook, and Bensenville for third.

The Northbrook, 4-2, versus Bensenville, 3-3, will be played Friday night at 7:30 at Glenview Park and should draw a good crowd as no other league games are played that night and there is much at stake. For Bensenville a victory would salvage some self respect from a very disappointing season. The Bisons were just too slow afoot this year to have a winner.

OVER AT ELA High there is a sign on the bulletin board asking students to sign their name joining the "Beat Wauconda" club. The Ela Bears hope to repeat last year's victory over the hapless Wauconda eleven and move to sixth place. Last week they surprised Antioch by winning, 20-13, and with Centoni back in form and other cripples recuperating it looks like Ela might play some of the ball expected of them before the season opened.

You can bet that Wauconda is even more anxious to win a game. The Bulldogs have yet to snare a Northwest Conference grid win and the players, student body, and coaches are hungry for a taste of victory. The game starts at 2:00 Saturday on Ela's field and should be one of the best of the season.

Barrington wins with final three minute pass

Barrington outplayed Grant in their title game last Saturday night at Fox Lake but had to come from behind in the final three minutes to snatch the victory which made it three three straight championships and 23 straight victories. A pass from Dan Osinski to left end, Steve Roake turned the trick when many Barrington fans had about kissed the title goodbye.

Again Roake demonstrated his great competitive spirit as did the entire Barrington team. Grant had only the consolation of coming nearest to breaking the Broncho streak.

BARRINGTON scored after the opening kickoff in six running plays with John Popp taking the ball over on a long run. Thereafter Barrington resorted more to passes than running with less success. In the third quarter Grant tossed a pass over the safety man's head to Captain Leuth for a touchdown and converted to take a 7-6 lead.

This lead held up as Grant put up a stiff defense but they say their chances fade as Steve Roake and Dan Osinski came through with their passing specialty in the closing minutes.

While Roake and Osinski got the winning score the Barrington fans laud the great playing of John Popp at halfback whose ball carrying gave the Bronchos the edge in a closely contested game.

Heights loses on the scoreboard but wins praise from officials

"Arlington doesn't quit, blame the officials, or play dirty when behind."

Thus spoke grid official Mike Rose, who worked the Crystal Lake victory at Heights Friday night along with Bob Kelton and Al Grosche.

"A losing team invariably does one of three things—they either quit playing, jump the officials for most decisions, or play dirty football when behind. Arlington is doing none of these things in spite of a losing season."

Arlington bowlers lose

A squad of Arlington Heights bowlers challenged a women's team Sunday on the Heights lanes, and came out second best by 154 pins. The 210 maple handicap provided the winning margin, but was willingly granted before the first frame was started.

Men: F. Gieseke 529, B. Duenn 440, M. Miller 505, E. Duenn 461, E. Winkelman 487, 796, 797, 829, 2422.

Women: M. Winkelman 566, M. Duenn 411, H. Duenn 462, L. Skoog 432, L. Pepin 495, 821, 840, 915, 2576.

Ela surprises Antioch eleven, 20-13

Coach William Lehmann's Ela Bears finally put across a victory last Friday night when they surprised Antioch 20-13. Antioch took an early 6-0 lead on a touchdown scored on a pass but Ela came back in the second period and took a 13-6 lead. A pass to Turner brought the first Ela score since the opening league game at Bensenville. A short time later George Radke blocked an Antioch punt which rebounded back 40 yards off his chest and was recovered by Ela on the Antioch 20 yard line. Centoni broke away for the touchdown. In the third quarter Ela took the ball to the 15 yard line. At this point Centoni took the ball over but Ela was offside putting the ball on the 20. Centoni plunged it over on the second play. In the waning minutes of the game Antioch scored again on a pass from Haviland to Pregenzer.

Bisons trip Wauconda, 33-12

Bensenville Bisons regained the victory trail Saturday night in their final home game when they defeated Wauconda, 33-12. The Bisons grabbed an early lead, then ran it up to 27-6 going into the home stretch. This week the Bisons travel to Northbrook Friday night for the final grid contest of the year.

Scoring for Coach Tom Meneguin's boys was fairly evenly divided. Currie tallied twice on the ground, once for five yards and the other time on a 55 yard dash.

Lauman accounted for two TDs when he ran 12 yards on a naked reverse, and plunged through the line four yards for pay dirt. Daly accounted for the other touchdown for the locals when he pulled a quarterback sneak for three yards.

MERHOLTZ ran the extra point that counted, while Rasmussen and McGlynn were responsible for trapping Sutko of Wauconda in the end zone for a safety.

Sutko accounted for all of the Wauconda scoring, too, as he had a punt return of 65 yards for one TD, plus a 12 yard run on the old Statute of Liberty fooler.

Currie and Lauman led the Bisons on offense, while McGlynn, Iske and Rasmussen were outstanding on defense for the Bensenville school.

Also performing creditably was Gengel, moved from guard to defensive half. He intercepted a pass, then ran 70 yards before being downed on the ten yard stripe.

Lakers stop Arlington on the field just as in this pic

John Carmichael is headline speaker for the Arlington Heights Men's club Monday night.

Arlington's Bob Simmons is stopped in the picture above just as effectively as the entire squad was against Crystal Lake Friday night when the visitors took home a 45-14 victory. Seen holding Simmons are Knaack (41) and Kelder (36) of Crystal Lake with Devine (54) and Giek (56) ready to help.

On the ground is John Copper (41) with Norbert Leckband (28) in the background for the Cardinals.

Ela freshmen trim Palatine, 13-6

Ela freshmen handed Palatine a 13-6 beating Monday night at Lake Zurich. Both teams scored in the first half but missed the extra points. Jesse went over for Palatine on a 40 yard run around end on a fake reverse. Hard line plunging by Prouty, Halvorsen and Anderson took the ball to the Palatine two yard line and Halvorsen plunged over.

Palatine threatened several times but did not have a scoring play when they needed it. Ela completed two passes for long gains and then Prouty took the ball over for the winning score and circled end for the extra point. This closed the Palatine frosh season with three wins and two losses. They beat Bensenville 21-7, Antioch 21-7, Barrington 20-13 and lost to Arlington 19-13 and to Ela 13-6.

MACSAYS

by G. A. McELROY

Saturday night the last game of the 1950 Northwest Conference season will be played when Palatine meets Grant at Fox Lake. Barrington has the championship all wrapped up with only Antioch, 1-5, standing between them and three straight undefeated seasons of league play. The Bronchos expect to make Antioch their 24th straight gridiron victim at Barrington Saturday afternoon in a 2:00 game. Our guess is that the score will be 38-6. Saturday at Ela Wauconda will try for their first victory but Ela is finally back at full strength. It looks to us like Ela 19, Wauconda 13. Northbrook's fast stepping Vikings close at home with Bensenville's disappointing Bisons. It looks to us like Northbrook 13, Bensenville 7. At Grant on Saturday night Palatine is very much the underdog and the best we can say for the Pirates is to predict Grant 32, Palatine 13.

We did not rate Northbrook high enough

If the above predictions come out the standings would be Barrington 7-0, Grant 6-1, Northbrook 5-2, Palatine 4-3, Bensenville 3-4, Ela 2-5, Antioch 1-6, and Wauconda 0-7. Before the season opened we figured Barrington the champ with Grant, Palatine and Bensenville in the first division. We slipped up a little on Northbrook.

Football is main sport at Grant high

Grant is the best football community in the Northwest Conference. That is our conclusion after watching the schools of this area play the grid sport over a 20 year period. Grant is also the poorest basketball school. At Grant the crowds really turn out to watch football.

The Bulldogs played Bensenville before 3,000 fans and about 3,500 watched Barrington play in Fox Lake last Saturday. Grant has more boys interested in football than any other of the Northwest schools. Grant was the first school in the conference and, with McHenry, the first in the Chicago area to play night football. Over the years Grant High practically always has had a first division team.

Cards still look for first victory this Friday night

Friday night Arlington Heights has one more chance to capture that elusive first victory of the season when they play Mattoon on the Arlington field. Mattoon has had an in and out season and the Cards, with a few breaks, might have their chance. Who knows? They certainly will be out trying.

It has been a rough year for the Cards and prospects for next year are a little brighter for the frosh-sophs certainly lack the usual Arlington strength. Arlington fans may have to wait until the present frosh crop gets up there before they see a team that can have a chance of breaking even on the gridiron.

We will say this for Arlington. Except for the Crystal Lake game the Cards have not been beaten badly and they have played very tough competition.

All Conference teams coming soon

Last week Paddock Publications sent out letters to Northwest Conference coaches asking them to nominate members of their squads they feel to be worth consideration for all-league honors. We will compile the names by positions and send a composite sheet back for each coach to name his all conference first and second team. We hope to publish the coaches all-conference teams week after next.

Leyden Eagles play tough winning football

Niles is in the Suburban League and Arlington Heights will soon be a West Suburban league member but Leyden is still an outcast. Of the three Leyden has the most right to get into a good league on the basis of their football record. There is a rumor that the West Suburban schools think Leyden plays too rough football. We guess that Leyden beats them too often.

The Eagles are enjoying a great season after losing a 7-6 decision at Blue Island their second time out. Last week they upset undefeated Thornton of the South Suburban 13-0. They are likely to rout Arlington's inept Cards next week. We are going to try to make the Leyden-LaGrange game which closes the season. That will really test George Bujan's club against one of the best in the state.

Mattoon 7-point favorite; to honor dads of 125 players

by BOB PADDOCK

Arlington Heights "victory starved" football squad will have what the experts call their last chance for a win this Friday night when they play host to Mattoon. Single game will start at 7:45 p. m., permitting the visitors to head for home a bit earlier than usual. Final game for the locals will be at Leyden next week.

Mattoon has been a hot and cold team this year, splitting even in six games. Two of the outstanding scores of their season's play are the 26-25 loss to Champaign and the 12-6 victory over Danville.

THAT DANVILLE score furnishes the closest comparison between the two teams. Kankakee, to whom Heights lost 13-0, edged the Big Twelve school by one TD, 6-0, the same margin Mattoon held over Danville.

On that basis the Cardinals should lose by seven points. But here again the visitors could easily be down, and provide Coach Larsen's never-say-die charges with their first win.

Co-captains Gene Coombes and Joe Wallace lead the favorites this year. Coombes is in his third season of varsity football, and has been doing a terrific job at fullback. Wallace is billed as a super guard noted for his spilling the ball carrier behind the line of scrimmage.

Ten other lettermen are on the Mattoon squad this year, giving the team plenty of needed experience. Coaching Mattoon is Bob Wilson, former Big 9 heavyweight wrestling champ, and football player at Illinois.

Bob was the Illini's outstanding frosh gridman in 1940, then made the varsity squad in '41 and 42. His conference wrestling title came in 1944.

DAD'S NIGHT will be observed Friday night on the Heights field with fathers of all varsity, frosh-soph and freshman football players receiving tickets. 125 dads will be in attendance.

Then, to, this will be the final home game for 20 seniors on the squad. These boys have seen and played a rough three years of football in their upperclass days. Open competition on off nights with schools out of the area has been their lot since the northeast conference died.

It has taken a lot of extra effort and spirit on the part of these boys to maintain their drive without a championship at stake, particularly with teams of downstate "football towns."

NEXT YEAR will be different, with competition starting in the West Suburban loop. Shedules will be on a complete conference basis, with top drawing, alternating home game nights certain to be scheduled.

Seniors on this year's Cardinal football team suiting up for Friday night's final home contest include Eric Nelson, Eugene Wille, Bob Packard, Jim Walker, Bob Schulze, Bob Bartlett, Jerry Eakins, Ronnie Thill, Paul Roche, Bob Fasick, George Kovavik, Frank Deigl, Herb Van Driel, Bob Evans, Dan Larsen, Harold Hodge, Dave Quinn, Joe Hipp, Carl Beigel and George Stark.

THE CROWDS have been good this year at Arlington, though the Crystal Lake game showed a drop in attendance. But athletic director Wally Grace insists attendance has been creditable.

"We're thankful the fans have come out to watch the boys this year," stated Wally, "in spite of a losing season. Contract severance expenses have added to our usual costs this year and we're hoping for a good turnout Friday night to keep the athletic department solvent in preparation for next year when the school enters the West Suburban league."

PAYOFFS for contract cancellations for next year so Arlington could enter the West Suburban have run to $500, with one more game still to be settled. Niles and Crystal Lake each received $150 while Mattoon traveling a long distance, received $200 to give up their grid contests with Heights next year.

That $500 is in addition to other operating costs that must be covered by receipts.

Novelty this week is broadcasting of the game. Few local persons will be able to hear the radio report, however, as Mattoon station WLBH, AM and FM, isn't geared to be heard in the Chicago area. The station operates on 1170 kilocycles and 96.9 megacycles.

Wheeling youth stars in Macomb grid win

Vic Lesch, of Wheeling, was the local hero recently at Western Illinois State college at Macomb. Jack Landis, first string quarterback was put out of the ball game mid-way in the third quarter and Vic Lesch took his place. He directed the team to a 28-27 victory over Northern of DeKalb.

Vic scored one of the touchdowns himself with a nice 12 yard end run and directed the team faultlessly, despite his 150 pounds.

Arlington frosh edge Crystal Lake

by RON PRELLBERG

The AHTHS frosh eleven under the guidance of Coach George Torhan began last Friday evening with a bang by defeating the visiting Laker Frosh in a tough struggle, 10-8.

Both defensive assaults proved effective for each squad in the opening period with Arlington in possession of the ball on the Lakers' 40 and no score recorded. Dave Brant gave his Cardinal mates a slight edge in the following frame as a blocked Tiger punt was smothered back of the visitors' endzone by Brant. A crushing second frame fumble prevented a local TD along with a Crystal Lake 60-yard pass interception dash to the Arlington 15. An aerial to Quinn then set the Cards back, 6-2. Tallies 3 and 4 were notched by the local yearlings through a repeat of a blocked punt and a safety by Werner as the half ended.

The fourth quarter saw more scoring power released when Card quarterback Dick Winterbauer, flipped a 40-yard TD pass into the waiting arms of Werner, who skirted 15 yards for the locals' final score. A blocked Arlington punt behind their own goal resulted in a close shave for the locals late in the final frame, but Bobby Dotts saved face for his mates by wrestling the ball from a Laker and converting a probable Laker TD into a Tiger safety.

67 yard pass in final three minutes wins for Northbrook

A 67 yard pass play in the final three minutes of the game enabled Northbrook to come from behind to nip Palatine 7-6 last Saturday night and tie the Pirates for third in the Northwest Conference race which has but a week to go. Northbrook was on their own 33 with prospects of gaining a win or a tie fast slipping away when Lou Orlandini tossed a 25 yard pass to Tom Pierce who evaded two tacklers to score. Ray Schmidt then place kicked the all important winning point.

Palatine had scored early in the second period when they recovered a Northbrook fumble on the 15 yard line. On two end around plays in a row Ward carried the ball to the two yard line. Herbertz made the touchdown. A bad pass from center nullified any chance of trying for the extra point.

Northbrook threatened twice in the second period. The first time Palatine stopped their drive by recovering a fumble when the Vikings had first down on the Pirate 10 yard stripe. A 55 yard quick kick a short time later set Northbrook back to their five yard line but their offense could not be stopped as they traveled 70 yards before the half time gun stopped them on the Palatine 25 yard line.

THERE SEEMED to be no stopping the aroused Vikings in the third period as they drove down the field toward the Palatine goal but they fumbled on the 17 yard line and Palatine recovered. Then when time was fast running out the Vikings clicked on the winning pass play.

Northbrook had the edge in all the statistics of the game. Their fumbling stopped three scoring marches and almost beat them. Palatine took advantage of all of the breaks of the game and played good ball but not good enough to win. Palatine was kept on the defensive nearly all the second half as Northbrook's line outcharged the Palatine linemen rather badly. Both teams did exceptional punting. On offense Miller gained 56 yards, Kempa 33 and Cusker 24 for Northbrook. Hillesheim gained 34, Day 25, and Herbertz 20 for Palatine. Pierce caught passes for 126 yards for Northbrook.

PALATINE'S frosh-sophs took to the air to beat Northbrook, 26-6, Saturday night for their fifth victory in six games. Two passes set up the first touchdown with Lorden going over on a 12 yard run. Schrage got the extra point on a quarterback sneak. The second came on a 32 yard pass from Lorden to Schrage in the end zone. Northbrook scored just before the half on a pass to Rossett from midfield. Palatine had elected to run instead of kick on fourth down and lost the ball. On the next play Northbrook threw the touchdown pass on a sleeper play.

In the third quarter a pass to Busch and lateral to Lorden put over the third touchdown and Lorden kicked goal. Later in the same period Lorden threw a 33 yard pass to Schrage for the fourth touchdown.

Chicago Cardinals host to Browns

Chicago Cardinals take on the Cleveland Browns Sunday afternoon at Comiskey Park with hopes of running their winning streak to three. The south siders have taken Washington and the New York Giants the past two Sundays.

For the Cards it will be a do or die battle. Their three losses are the limit, and perhaps beyond it, with which Lambeau's men could hope to win their division title. Some observers predict the winner of the championship will suffer three defeats and the Cards already have lost to the Bears, Browns and Philadelphia.

The Bears will be in Detroit after last Sunday's disappointing loss to the Yanks. The Halasmen will probably have to win all of their remaining games in order to cash in on a playoff berth, no mean task this year with almost any pro team capable of upsetting any other aggregation.

Niles succumbs to Evanston

by FRED DAESCHLER

Two first-period Nilehi fumbles, plus the brilliant running of halfback Bob McKever, and fullback George Gibbs, gave the Evanston Wildkits a 10 to 0, first quarter lead, which proved to be all that would have been needed as Evanston dropped Coach Virgil Van Cleave's boys 48 to 0 last Saturday, October 28, at the Trojans' last home football game of the 1950 season.

This Saturday, November 4, the Trojans will journey to Highland Park for their final game of the year.

Although the Trojans received the kick-off, it was just two plays later that a fumble placed the ball in the Wildkits hands on the Nilehi 30-yard line. A series of sharp drives by halfbacks Bob McKever and Jack Hunter brought the ball to the 4, where George Gibbs scored the first of his three touchdowns giving the Wildkits a 6 to 0 lead.

MINUTES LATER Evanston scored again as the Trojans fumbled on their 25-yard line. Wildkit halfback Bob McKever then drove to the 6, where again it was fullback Gibbs who went over for the score.

With the first quarter drawing to a close, Evanston quarterback Gilbert hauled in a Trojan punt and returned it to the 30-yard line, setting up the third successive touchdown for George Gibbs, who plowed over the goal line handing the Wildkits a 19 to 0 lead.

With the second quarter well under way, Evanston tallied for the fourth time on a 46-yard touchdown march, with Bob McKever finally going over for the score.

The Trojans then followed by driving from their own 20, up to the 50-yard line only to have the ball lost on downs. Evanston's halfback Frank Palmer took a hand-off on the Nilehi 20 and shot over for the fifth touchdown of the game. McKever's second conversion was made moving the Wildkits ahead 32 to 0.

AFTER HALTING another Trojan drive, Evanston halfback Bob McKever reeled off a 25-yard sprint for his second touchdown of the day.

Later with the Trojans caught deep in their own territory an attempted punt by Dick Nock was blocked for a safety, making the score 40 to 0.

The Trojans attempted a comeback in the final period of the game with quarterback Don Walter putting on an aerial show that saw nine out of his 12 passes completed, but to no avail as the Wildkits managed to tally once more and run the final score up to read: Evanston 48, Nilehi 0.

SENSATIONAL H. Gibbs, Evanston fullback, and his backfield mates who hit with stunning power unleashed a churning ground attack to beat the Trojan Sophomores, 39 to 0 last Saturday on the Niles home field.

Using a passing attack, their own and their opponents', the Evanston frosh whipped the Nilehi lower classmen 28 to 6 last Saturday morning at the Nilehi field.

Use gun right to avoid hunting accidents

A gun can be a source of much enjoyment in hunting if it is carefully used, says Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes.

But it can also be the source of much grief and sorrow if some member of your family is killed or permanently injured because of a hunting accident.

Hughes says that every hunter knows that sportsmanship is just good manners. It includes using the right gun for the right game, hunting only in season and not taking the limit of game unless you can use the meat.

For bird hunting, the good hunter takes a trained dog to retrieve cripples. He puts out cigarettes and campfires carefully, breaks matches before dropping them and in general tempers his actions with reason.

Three causes are reported by the Illinois Farm and Home Safety Committee as leading to almost two-thirds of the gun accidents occurring during the hunting season. They are humans in the line of fire, mistaking humans for game, and hunting with the safety catch off.

AN INTELLIGENT hunter considers carefully what he is doing, says Hughes. He learns and follows these safety precautions:

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun. This is the cardinal rule of gun safety.
2. Carry into your auto, camp and home only guns that are empty, taken down or without the action open.
3. Always be sure the barrel and action are clear of obstructions.
4. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle even if you stumble.
5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.
7. Never leave your gun unattended unless you unload it first.
8. Never climb a tree or a fence with a loaded gun.
9. Never shoot at a flat, hard surface or the surface of water.
10. Do not mix gunpowder and alcohol.

HOW TALL A' TREE

We have used twice as much timber as existed in 1630, but through regrowth, we still have abundant forests. We have cleared millions of acres for agricultural crops but we still have two-thirds of the original forest area left.

Arlington men play for Bradley frosh

Dick Spratt carries ball for 15 yard gain for Bradley in first part of third quarter during game between Bradley U. Freshmen and Illinois State Normal U. "B" team. Number 89 (at right) is Bradley lineman John Deininger. This was Bradley's first game and was played at Bradley. The Braves (Bradley) won 19 to 13. Also listed on the Bradley frosh squad is Gordon Busse. All three boys are from Arlington Heights. Meineke photo.

Crystal Lake squad smothers Arlington in 45-14 contest

by RON PRELLBERG

The toughest Cardinal opponent to date, Crystal Lake, appeared on the local gridiron last Friday night and in less than two quarters had penetrated the Red Birds' defense for 31 points, which was stretched into a climaxing 45-14 count favoring the Tigers.

Jack Jacoby spearheaded the visiting Lakers' attack by weaving and sprinting his way for one 25-yard TD and plowing through the Card defense three more times for a total of four successful pay dirt thrusts. Jacoby was never without assistance, as Laker quarterback Don Roderick's professional appearing 55-yard touchdown dash and his sparkling aerial, also good for 6 points, provided plenty of help in the offensive spotlight.

Arlington's cause was not entirely blacked out, however, for when the third and fourth periods rolled around, Eric Nelson directed an all-out throwing attack which marked off for AHT HS 120 yards, a TD, and set up another tally on which Bob Packard bucked his way over from the 3.

A COMPLETED 45-yard pitch from Roderick to Fred Schneider on the local 20 on the first play of the game set Arlington off balance and kept them there until they had four downs later tallied when Jacoby bowled his way to the end zone. The placement for the point followed successfully. Roderick, a few minutes later side stepped three Card would-be tacklers and sprinted 50 yards to pay dirt for the Tigers' second of three touchdowns garnered in the opening frame. A wide conversion attempt then set the visitors ahead 13-0.

A tight Laker defense paved the way for the Tigers' final TD in the first segment by recovering a Red Bird fumble on the Arlington 25, after which Jacoby tucked the pigskin under his arms and in one down with knees high drove across the local goal. Bob Schulze broke through the Crystal Lake forward wall to block the conversion attempt.

Two more Arlington mistakes, a fumble, and an intercepted pass, proved fatal to the hosts in the second period as the Tigers capitalized on these to the tune of 12 additional markers.

Jacoby took full advantage of the intercepted aerial for his third TD while George Hopper added the sixth Crystal Lake tally on a plunge off-tackle after the second local mishap, fumble.

A DESPERATE comeback was staged by the Cardinals in the final half when Eric Nelson set sail eight completed pitches, three of which were beautifully snagged by Card right end, Bob Evans, but still Crystal Lake equaled the Card second half scoring at 14. The first Tiger TD was recorded as Jacoby climaxed a 67-yard pay dirt march on a quick opener while the second became a reality in the fourth frame through a 22-yard flip to Hopper in the end zone. Both conversions by Tom Giek hit their mark.

The hard running of Bob Packard, local stellar right half, notched the first local TD for the evening from the 3-yard stripe, leaving the final Arlington tally to take the shape of a 13-yard pass from Nelson to Mike Theis. Bob Fasick's educated toe sent each conversion between the goal posts.

Niles enters Suburban league

by RUSSELL O'GRADY

"Welcome into the Suburban League" This was the greeting given to Dr. A. L. Biehn, superintendent of Niles township high school October 16, when the school was made an official member.

December 1, 1928 marked the beginning of one of the best high school leagues in Illinois, according to H. G. Pertz, secretary of the Suburban League. The league was organized with six suburban schools: Deerfield Shields (later known as Highland Park), Evanston, Morton, New Trier, Oak Park, and Proviso. The League now consists of all the schools that started it, plus Waukegan and Niles.

Because of previous scheduling commitments, Nilehi will play every Suburban League team except Oak Park in the 1951 football season, and will not figure in the final Suburban League standings until 1952. Athletic director Harold Isaacson has hopes of seeing Nilehi teams competing with League teams in basketball, track, and golf in 1951.

Robinson-Dykes bout at Stadium Wednesday

Sugar Ray Robinson, the king of the Welterweights and considered the best all around fighter now active, will risk his reputation Nov. 8 at the Chicago Stadium against 22 year old Bobby Dykes who says, "I'll fight any one in the ring and beat 'em."

Dykes includes among his victims such sluggers as Lester Felton, Frankie Abrams and Jean Walzack. Walzack was never knocked out until he fought Bobby. But Dykes hit him so hard in the fifth round of their second fight that Walzack broke his ankle hitting the deck.

However, until proven otherwise, Robinson reigns as the greatest boxer now in the ring and no other proof is needed than his record of 115 fights with only one defeat. That lone loss was to Jake LaMotta who met the Robinson fury on four other occasions later on, to wipe the blemish off Sugar's record.

Eveland wins another round

Ernie Eveland, deposed basketball coach, was assured of keeping his Paris teaching job for some time to come.

This was what happened in effect when Judge Ward P. Holt, in Circuit Court, refused to delay his recent order that Eveland be reinstated.

The school board asked for the delay until an appeal on Judge Holt's order is decided. The board has appealed to the Illinois Appellate court.

Eveland coached the championship winning 1943 and 1947 Paris high school basketball teams which took the state title in both those years.

He was accused of insubordination a year ago and the board tried to fire him. But Eveland went to court to fight the ouster.

Judge Holt's ruling assured Eveland a teaching job until the appeal is settled, probably some time next year.

Eveland is no longer Paris high school coach but is teaching classes and directing athletics at Mayo Junior high school there.

Arlington frosh-sophs edge St. Mary's, 7-6

Arlington Heights frosh-soph gridders edged St. Mary's of Des Plaines Wednesday on the Heights field, 7-6.

Hollahan ran 15 yards around right end for a second period score for Arlington, Henniberg kicking the extra point. St. Mary's scored the final frame on a 35 yard pass, the conversion bouncing off the goal posts.

Next frosh-soph game is Friday night, November 10, at Leyden in the preliminary

ANNOUNCEMENT BY

The Theodore Roosevelt "Bull Moose" Progressive Republicans

This REPUBLICAN organization, founded in 1912 by Pres. Theodore Roosevelt, urges all Republicans and Independents to vote for candidates who will serve all of the people and to reject political opportunists.

The SHERIFF is our county's chief law enforcing officer. Our present Sheriff — a Republican lawyer — has given us four years of County Jail Scandals and non-enforcement of gambling and vice laws. The people don't want another lawyer in that office. Nor do the people want a lawyer who was selected by the warring factions of the Republican party as a "compromise candidate". We need an experienced police officer for Sheriff.

After a thorough investigation of the records of both candidates — their public and private and family lives — and in view of the strong recommendations of every living State's Attorney, including Thomas J. Courtney and Robert E. Crowe, a Republican, we urge the election of

The younger generation

Happy-Go-Lucky

This bonnie lass is the youngest member of the Lawrence Kreft family of 210 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. She is Nancy Jean, 26 months, and has golden blonde hair and blue eyes.

Nancy Jean has a brother, Roger, 12, in seventh grade at the Lutheran school and a sister, Karen, eight, in the third grade, also at the Lutheran school.

"She's a happy-go-lucky child, always smiling," declared Mrs. Kreft. A cuddly bunny is her favorite plaything and bedtime companion. Dancing to television music is another of her frequent activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langhorst, 441 N. Easy, Palatine, are her maternal grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kreft, paternal grandparents, live upstairs of Nancy Jean's family. "She spends most of her time with them," said Mrs. Kreft.

Only child

Pictured next is Frederick "Freddy" Borland, blond haired and brown-eyed son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Borland, 9 Ridge ave., Prospect Heights.

Freddy will celebrate his third birthday in January. "He's an active youngster," reported Mrs. Borland, "and is outside most of the time." When indoors, he prefers his "choo-choo" trains to other toys.

Freddy is an only child and has grandparents living in Winnetka.

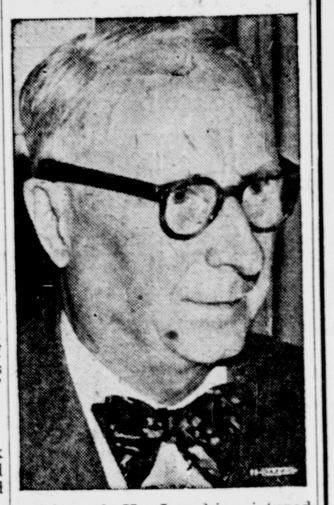

Early bird

Judy Winkelman is the last of today's representatives of the younger set. She is the blonde and blue eyed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Winkelman, 408 N. Eastwood, Mt. Prospect.

Judy is 22 months old, walked when she was 11 months, and talks quite a bit for not quite a two-year old. "Outside of these things, she is an ordinary, active and happy child," said Mrs. Winkelman, "enjoying her dolls, doll buggy and swing."

This youngster has maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferner, Ballard rd., Des Plaines, and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Winkelman, 65 N. Seventh ave., Cumberland.

Veteran County Judge candidate for re-election

Edmund K. Jarecki, pictured above, has an outstanding record as County Judge of Cook county for 28 consecutive years.

An exponent of clean, honest elections and a fair system of taxation, Judge Jarecki sponsored the original bill that brought the permanent registration system with its signature identification feature to Cook county and fought successfully for its adoption.

Judge Jarecki is running for re-election on the Democratic ticket November 7.

RIGHT PREVAILS

The force of an ideal is greater than the ideal of force.
—Josephus Daniels

From lack of moral strength empires fall. Right alone is irresistible, permanent, eternal.
—Mary Baker Eddy

The ultimate notion of right is that which tends to the universal good; and when one's acting in a certain manner has this tendency he has a right thus to act.
—Francis Hutcheson

The safest person in the United States has moved back to Connecticut.

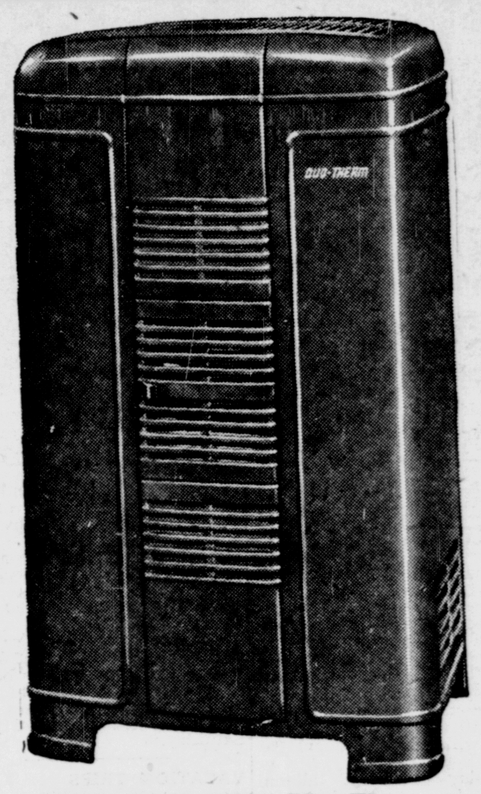

It's still that little girl — the National Safety Council's perennial nominee for the mythical safety title. She lived in Connecticut for many years, but moved to New Jersey when that state recorded the lowest accident fatality rate in 1948.

Connecticut again came out on top in 1949, according to the 1950 edition of "Accident Facts," the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook. So the little gal's moved again.

The Council figures the safest person must be a little girl, because the safest age group was the 5-14 bracket and for some reason little girls have fewer GLAMOURIZED COFFEE . . . So good . . . and so easy on a modern GAS RANGE!

RECIPE

Spiced Mocha Chocolate

Serve strong hot coffee and this hot chocolate in separate pots, accompanied by a bowl containing a mixture of ½ teaspoon cinnamon to 4 tablespoons sugar. Fill cups with ⅔ coffee and ⅓ chocolate, sugar and cream to taste.

Spanish Hot Chocolate

Grate 6 ounces unsweetened chocolate. Place in 1-quart saucepan with 2 cups cold milk and heat slowly, stirring constantly with wooden spoon. When mixture begins to boil, remove from range and beat hard until creamy and well-blended. Return to range, stirring constantly to prevent burning and boiling over. Simmer 10 minutes or until chocolate reaches consistency of thin cream. Serve very hot.

"Click-simmer" burners on a modern GAS range give you economical, sure simmer heat. Serve this unusual beverage after a football game or a few lines of bowling . . . it's perfect! Call the Home Service Department of the Public Service Company whenever you're looking for new recipe ideas!

Reprinted from "The TIME Reader's Book of Recipes," published by E. P. Dutton & Co., $2.50 at all bookstores.

Savor the Flavor you get from a Flame

Economy is more important than ever these days and a modern GAS range is a big help in balancing the food budget. Slow-simmering stews and soups can be the mainstay of a meal . . . and save on fuel at the same time. There's no guessing about simmer heat on a modern GAS range. You just click the control to "simmer" and forget it, knowing the soup will be just barely bubbling until you turn it off. Thick blanket insulation around the oven keeps the heat in and prevents fuel wastage. And economical broiler meals are delicious and simple to prepare on a GAS range. Be saving . . . be smart . . . cook on a modern GAS range.

The UNIVERSAL

Arlington musician to appear with Sinfonietta in Heights concert

Residents in Arlington Heights and surrounding communities will have an opportunity to hear the University of Illinois Sinfonietta in a concert next Monday evening, at 8 p.m., at the high school. Among the members of the Sinfonietta pictured above is Frank Pytlik, who graduated from AHTHS in 1950. He plays the principal second violin with the group.

N. U. to celebrate '50 Homecoming Nov. 3-5

Northwestern University alumni will return to the Evanston campus November 3-5 for a Homecoming celebration featuring a parade of floats, pep rally, and the gridiron clash between the Wildcats and Ohio State's Buckeyes.

The annual Homecoming event will begin at 7:15 p. m. Friday, Nov. 3 with the traditional parade.

Following the rally, alumni and friends of Northwestern University will be invited to inspect Homecoming decorations installed by 27 organized homes.

Saturday morning alumni will register at Scott Hall and make tours of the campus under supervision of members of the Wildcat Council, Northwestern student service group.

Approximately 50,000 persons are expected to witness the Northwestern-Ohio State game scheduled to start at 1:30 p. m. in Dyche Stadium.

Following the game, alumni will gather for cider and doughnuts at an open house to be held in the main lounges of Scott Hall. Organized houses will hold open houses after 6 p. m., Saturday.

VACATION TRIPS

The Chicago Motor Club estimates that about 80 per cent of all vacation trips are made by car. The average trip lasts two weeks and covers 2,500 miles.

Wilson School Community News

The school nurse, Miss Jean Baker, has been called back into service in the Navy, and will report at Oakland, Calif., November 8. As there is a shortage of school nurses due to the war situation, none are available for the Wilson school at the present time, and the fine health program started by Miss Baker will have to be abandoned for the time being.

A fine large dictionary has been donated to the school by Leanne and Peter Steiger.

Mrs. Magnussen reported a shortage of small chairs for her primary group work, and Mrs. Sundquist has donated two chairs for that purpose.

Jimmy Lambdin celebrated his fifth birthday November 1. The birthday party held in the afternoon had a Hollowe'en atmosphere, and the following guests attended: Sonny Hahnfeld, Mayrene Schroeder, Jack Lindstrom, Jimmy Gerken, Freddie Ball, Andy Prentiss, Nancy and Tony Hey, Sandy and Butch Goodrich and Dede Fellows.

The 4-H club of this area held a Hallowe'en party last Saturday night at the home of Pat Henning. About fifteen girls arrived in costume, and Donna Lee Castellanos won first prize for the best costume. Traditional apple ducking and other games were played, and refreshments were served.

Recognition night for the 4-H clubs in Arlington Heights area will be held at the field house December 9. Awards of seals and pins will be made for honors of the past year.

The Ladies of Arlington Knolls held a surprise stork shower last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Robert Huebner in honor of Mrs. Virginia Burr. Mrs. Burr plans to leave this week for her new home in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

"Music at Work in the PTA" is the theme of the special Conference on Music which will be held November 9 in Kimball Hall, Chicago. There is a morning and afternoon session, beginning at 9:30 a. m., and adjourning at 3 p. m. This conference is planned for all PTA people.

The next regular monthly meeting of the Wilson school PTA will be held November 10 at 8 p. m. The Achievement club will hold a bake sale immediately following the meeting.

Happy Birthday to Mrs. Sidney Bradbury, who is vacationing in California. She will celebrate her birthday November 5 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Russ Klesert, at Woodland Hills, Cal.

North Cook Rural Youth meets, enjoys hayride

The October meeting of the North Cook Rural Youth was held at the Boesche home and final plans were made for the group's skating party to be held November 6 at the Arlington Roller Rink.

The club decided to change its weekly bowling night from Tuesday to Thursday and members will continue to bowl at the Wood Dale Bowling Alley.

After the business meeting the young people enjoyed a hayride and wienie roast.

The next meeting will be held at the Palatine Legion Hall November 16. All rural young people are invited to attend this meeting.

Long Grove news

by M. LA MARCHE

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hons were Sunday afternoon visitors in the Charles Wehrenberg home, Libertyville.

Mrs. Arthur Potts and daughter, Dolores, were Waukegan shoppers Monday.

Saturday dinner guests in the Robert Steckroth home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herschberger and Mrs. Charles Platt.

Mrs. Dorothy Wehrenberg spent Saturday in McHenry with her niece, Mrs. George Bohr.

Miss Clara Hintz, a former resident of Long Grove, was surprised Saturday evening with a bridal shower given in her honor. Miss Marlene Wolf of Halfday was hostess at the shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herschberger and Mrs. Charles Platt of Long Grove visited with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tonne and family, Lake Zurich, Sunday afternoon.

November 5, the Sunday school and Long Grove church will hold a joint service at 10:30 a. m. Some of the Sunday school pupils will take part in the service and a children's choir will sing. There will be no Sunday school at 9:30.

The Howard C. Bauer Sr. family entertained friends from Florida Sunday evening at a barbecue.

Elk Grove school

Over 5,000 pounds of paper were collected from the paper drive. The eighth grade class will receive $38.50, the proceeds from the drive, to put into their class fund. The graduating class will present a gift to the school from their class fund at the end of the year.

The seventh and eighth grades brought in the largest amount of paper with 3-4 grades, 5-6 grades and 1-2 grades in consecutive order.

Prizes will be given to each room for their efforts. Everyone is encouraged to save their paper until the spring paper drive.

During the Hallowe'en program Friday, the sixth grade will present a play, the lower grades will recite poems and the seventh and eighth grades will have a hot dog roast.

A program entitled "America Sings" will be presented Tuesday, November 17, by the fifth through seventh grades for the Mothers' club.

Bits o' business

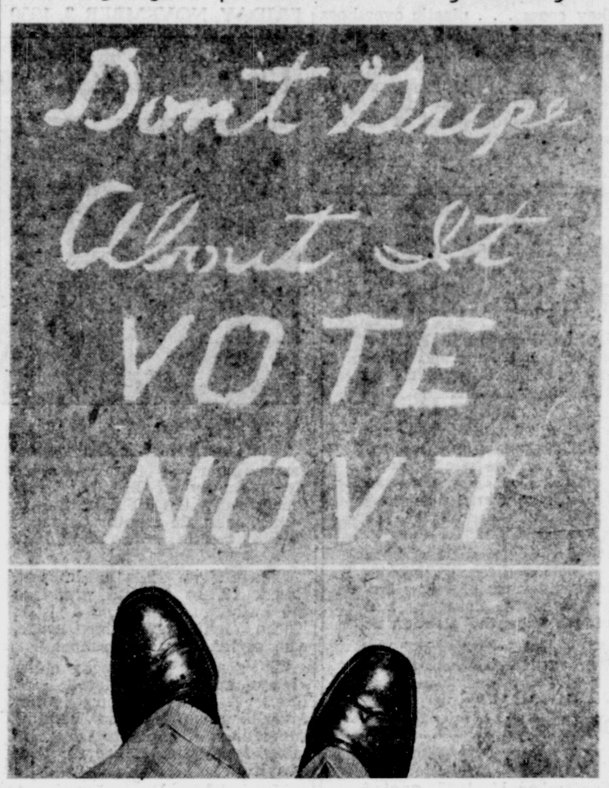

Everything that can be sold in a vending machine is being given the go-ahead sign in business today. Latest to be successfully tested are paper-covered books . . . The age limit for badly needed machinists and tool, die and gauge makers at the Frankfort, Pa., arsenal has been upped to 70 years, from 62 previously . . . A speed-up in government controls is looked for right after elections to put the economy on a stronger mobilization footing . . . General wage price freeze is being strongly resisted, but more selective controls can be expected . . . The Federal Reserve Board is steadily bearing down on credit, latest informed rumors being that business loans will be cut in unessential industries if the total volume of business credit does not sag of its own accord soon . . . Total business loans have been edging up to new peaks . . . The need for a world food stockpile is now being discussed in Washington . . . Growing shortages in papers are spurring increased search for paper waste for conversion back to finished papers.

Heart Research

According to American Heart, the new quarterly publication of the American Heart association, the latter organization allocated approximately $700,000 last year for heart research. Awards from the national office totaled $250,000 in 1949, and funds spent by affiliates, the New York and Chicago associations, made up the rest. A minimum of $380,000 from 1949 campaign funds has been earmarked for future research awards.

Lessons In . . . . English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

Do not confuse carton (a pasteboard box) with cartoon (a pictorial caricature).

Do not say, "Their headquarters are situated just outside the city." Say, "Their headquarters is situated."

Do not say, "His speech was overly long." It is better to say, "His speech was too long."

Do not confuse explicit (distinctly stated; plain in language) with implicit (fairly to be understood, though not expressed).

Do not say, "Mr. Johnson happened in yesterday." Say, "Mr. Johnson chanced to call yesterday."

Do not say, "The audience displayed a mutual contempt for the speech." Say, "displayed a common contempt."

Words Often Mispronounced

Fiasco (a complete failure). Pronounce fe-as-ko, e as in fee unstressed, a as in at, o as in no, accent second syllable.

Discovery. Pronounce in four syliables, not dis-kuv-ri.

Marital. Pronounce mar-i-tal, both a's as in at, accent first syllable.

Adept (adjective). Accent second syllable.

Drollery. Pronounce the o as in roll, not as in doll.

Beneficent (beneficial). Pronounce with accent on second syllable.

Words Often Misspelled

Psychology; observe the psych. Dishabille, though pronounced dis-a-beel. Crystal, one l; crystallize, two l's. Symmetrical; observe the two m's. Mediterranean; observe the six vowels and two r's. Anonymous; observe the y.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Morose; of a sour or gloomy temper. (Pronounce both o's as in no, accent second syllable). "One morose person can affect a whole community."

Dissension; disagreement. "The speaker's words caused much dissension among the members of the club."

Encroachment; entrance upon the rights or domain of another; gradual intrusion. "The country has yielded to the encroachments of civilization."

Incapacity; lack of ability. "The leader's incapacity proved a big handicap to the company."

Perturb; to disturb greatly. "He did not allow the interruptions to perturb him."

Logical; consistent in point of reasoning. "That is the logical conclusion."

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Isn't it all right to mail out handwritten wedding invitations?

A. Yes. Informal notes, written on one's personal stationery, are all right. But in the case of large, or formal, weddings, the engraved invitations and announcements are much better.

Q. Does a man ever offer his hand in greeting to a woman?

A. Under ordinary circumstances, a man never offers his hand to a woman unless she offers hers first. However, if they are very good friends, they usually offer their hands simultaneously upon meeting.

Q. When one has eaten at a luncheon counter, is it necessary to leave a tip on the counter?

A. No. Some people who are regular patrons of that counter do, but it isn't usually necessary.

Q. Must every first call be returned by a woman who has recently moved into a new neighborhood, whether she likes some particular person or not?

A. Yes; all first calls should be returned within two weeks. Of course, it is not necessary to form a friendship that seems undesirable.

Q. When there is to be a double-ring marriage ceremony, which ring is presented first?

A. The bridegroom puts his ring on the bride's finger first, after which the bride presents the bridegroom with her ring.

Q. How should the fruit seed, or a small piece of bone, be taken from the mouth while at the dinner table?

A. Between the thumb and forefinger. Never try to do this by pushing it out into the spoon.

Q. Is it proper to hold the fork in the hand at the dinner table while talking?

A. No; if one has entered a lengthy conversation, it is much better to lay the fork on the plate while talking. Of course, this does not mean that he must lay his fork down quickly for each "yes," "no," or, "I think so."

Q. When a woman is preparing to leave her home within a few minutes, and a caller arrives unexpectedly, what should the woman do?

A. She should not hesitate to tell her guest that she has an appointment, but that she hopes her guest can stay a few minutes anyway.

Q. Should parents include their children in introductions?

A. Yes, and they should teach their children at an early age how to make friendly acknowledgment to these introductions.

Q. Is it good manners for a girl to ask her escort for a cigarette?

A. Yes, this is quite all right. An attentive escort should of course, make such a request unnecessary, but should he be forgetful enough, it is perfectly proper for the girl to make the request.

Heart attack takes life of realty salesman while driving car in Chicago

R. A. Schuneman who recently purchased a home at 500 East Chicago ave., Palatine, died Monday night at the intersection of 55th and Christiana, Chicago.

A heart attack developed while he was driving his car which was stopped when he hit a drug store. The druggist administered first aid, a doctor and a fire department pulmotor were called. However on arrival at Southtown hospital he was pronounced dead. It is estimated that he lived about 15 minutes after the attack.

The remains are resting at Tharp funeral home, Palatine. Services will be held at Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, Thursday at 1:30.

Deceased was born in Chicago Aug. 5, 1899. He married Emma Zander Aug. 18, 1923. They have one son, Kenneth.

Others surviving are two brothers, Harry and Albert, and a sister, Mrs. Frieda Rogers.

Mr. Schuneman recently spent four months recuperating at a hospital and had been employed two months by Arthur McIntosh Co.

Charles W. Peters

Funeral services were held Monday for Charles W. Peters late of 214 N. Vail ave., Arlington Heights, at the First Methodist church, 2:30 p. m. Rev. R. Robert Ismay officiated. Interment Mt. Elmblem. Arrangements by Black's Memorial Home.

Mr. Peters was born February 26, 1874, in Berlin, Germany. He came to this country in 1880. February 26, 1901, he married Mary Vaughn in Chicago. Following their marriage the couple lived in Chicago until 1913 when they moved to Arlington Heights.

The deceased was employed by the Aldin Company of Chicago for 44 years and had been retired for the past four years. He was a member of the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights, the Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star.

Following an illness of several years he died at his home October 27 at the age of 76.

Survivors include his wife, Mary; four children, Mrs. Maude Miller of Park Ridge, Mrs. Mildred Richardson of Des Plaines, Edward W. and Robert J., both of Arlington Heights; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Zeitlow and Mrs. Elsa Miller; one brother, Ernest, and five grandchildren Robert, Marilyn, De Lores Rae, Thomas and Ruth Ann.

One son, Raymond C, preceded him in death while serving his country.

Mr. Pahnke was born July 31, 1890, in Chicago. He died October 31 at his home. He was a piano tuner.

Survivors include his wife, Fredericka, and one son, Erwin W.

CARD OF THANKS

The kindness and sympathy of neighbors and friends in our recent sorrow will always remain with us a precious memory. Our sincere thanks and gratitude for all those comforting acts.

Henry C. Meyer
and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

The recent bereavement which has visited our home has brought to us a greater appreciation of our friends. Such kindnesses and neighborly thoughtfulness can naver be forgotten.

Mrs. Chas. Peters
and Family.

Home Permanents

More home permanents are used during June, July and August than any other time of the year. With frequent trimming needed to keep short summer styles neat and attractive, women find they need permanents more often. The ease and economy of home waving make it the favorite method for obtaining short-hair curls.

Des Plaines to ask courts to decide in Meyer cement case

Led by Ald. Howard Clement (5th), who was backed up by the presence of approximately 100 West Siders, Des Plaines City council voted 7 to 0 to take the Meyer Coal & Material co. case to court to determine whether the concern is in violation of zoning ordinance and whether a nuisance is involved.

The matter has been smouldering for several weeks after it was learned that a former building inspector had issued a permit for the concern to construct a mixing plant and shaker south of Cumberland Terrace. As it turned out the structure is considerably higher than the 45 ft. allowed by the lite industrial law. Nearby residents also claim that a noise and dust nuisance is involved.

The big point to solve, according to the West Side councilman and members of the West Des Plaines Civic assoc., is that of whether the Meyer business is lite or heavy industrial. They feel it comes under the latter classification which would make operation in violation of the lite industrial zoning which exists for that area.

Pictured above at the Alpha Pi-Gamma Phi Beta exchange party at Bradley university is Alice Barloga of Palatine, seated in the chair. Others are also students at the university. Photo taken by David Meineke, former staff photographer of Paddock Publications and now working for the Peoria Journal-Star while attending Bradley.

Miss Alice Barloga, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barloga, 144 N. Linden st., Palatine, is a member of the Bradley university court recently established by the student council. Miss Barloga and her fellow members will conduct hearings on violations of college regulations. One of their biggest jobs will be the assessment of traffic fines. The court sits in session twice a week.

Alice Barloga, was also one of five girls selected to ride on the float of her sorority, Gamma Phi Beta, at homecoming festivities at Bradley university, Peoria.

Gamma Phi Beta won first prize for both their float and house decorations.

Alice, a senior, is a social science major and a physical education minor.

At Carthage

Irene Hering of Mt. Prospect, a sophomore at Cathage college, was awarded special honors at the college's Honors Day Convocation recently.

This honor is granted to students who achieved a B plus or higher scholastic average during the past year.

Miss Hering is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Hering, 306 Wheeling rd.

At Park

After a week of rush parties for all new students at Park college, Parkville, Mo., club elections have been announced.

Miss Darlene Toppel of 222 N. Benton st., Palatine, has been elected to the Calliopean club, the woman's division of the Parchevard and Calliopean Social club.

First organized 55 years ago, the co-ed social clubs at Park take the place of Greek-letter fraternities.

Judge Fisher rules out city ordinance

Judge Fisher of the Circuit Court, Chicago, ruled against the city of Des Plaines last week and ordered them to issue permits to the three GIs for undersized houses. These three vets had been refused permits by the inspector based on an ordinance passed making it necessary that certain parts of the city be limited to the construction of houses conforming to others in the area.

In his ruling in the case the Judge said that a citizen could pitch a pup tent anywhere he liked under the constitution of the United States. The city will be forced to issue the building permits to these three applicants.

Way Back When

Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money

Editor H. C. Paddock enjoyed his politics

— even if Republicans were the losers

Editor H. C. Paddock, the late founder of Paddock Publications got a lot of enjoyment out of his "Editorial Musings," which appeared each week. Before and after elections the editor was at his best. He always had some nice things to say about Commissioner William Busse, who was always a victor and he was just as ready to sooth the wounds of those defeated—be they democrats, republicans or progressives of Teddy Roosevelt days.

Here are the Musings that told of a Republican victory in 1904; a Democratic landslide in 1910 (two years before Wilson's election to the presidency) and the defeat of Teddy Roosevelt in 1912 as a candidate of the Progressives.

Editor Paddock was a staunch Republican, but followed "Teddy" to the Progressive party.

Democratic Landslide

NOVEMBER 11, 1910

Republicans are thankful they are still alive after the landslide.

It looks gloomy for our party today; but may be worse two years hence.

Republicans step aside; don't stand in the way of the elect—people's choice.

Of course votes count; but we don't see where they got so many Democrats.

Cook County belongs to the Democrats by right of conquest—to the victors belong the spoils.

We'll have to grin and bear it and hope for better luck at the next turn of the wheel of political fortunes.

Courage and persistency are lasting mottos of the Democrats—they never give up hope and occasionally get a chance at the crib.

Many political job holders will now wish they were Democrats—it is too bad to be turned out just as the cold winter is coming on.

There are both good and bad politicians in all parties—an occasional reverse warns the parties that they must weed out the bad ones.

Political landslides like sunshine and rain, fall on the just and unjust alike; but honesty and ability will ultimately be appreciated and rewarded.

The Democrats will have to hustle to find jobs enough to the hungry crowd that will present their claims for an easy place with big pay.

Evidently the people wanted a change and now they will have it. We hope the Democrats will meet their fondest expectations and give entire satisfaction.

Wm. Busse can point with pride to his honest business administration of Cook County affairs. The new Court House and other county buildings will long stand as a monument to the credit of Busse and his associates on the county board.

When such men as Judge Cutting are snowed under in a radical partisan campaign, it shows that many voters are not posted and don't regard a faithful, honest, non-partisan Probate Judge who has always been kind and considerate to women, children, poor people and everybody having business in his court. All are sorry to hear of his defeat.—Later: Official count shows the election of Judge Cutting by 234 plurality. He is the only Republican candidate elected which proves his universal popularity.

Republican Victory

NOVEMBER 11, 1904

It is nice to be on the winning side. It takes a smart man to intelligently "scratch" his ballot.

Teddy Roosevelt will now teach the trusts that he is with the common people and they are supreme in the United States.

A large majority of the people are right and their verdict is correct, after all the evidence has been carefully considered.

Bryan and Hearst can rejoice with the Republicans and congratulate each other on escaping the cyclone which struck Parker.

Now that the election is over, let the spell-binders find some honest occupation, while the rest of the people settle down to their normal duties.

Fate was against a Democratic victory this year. Their quiet candidate talked too much and made fatal errors when he stooped to political trickery to defeat his opponent.

The democrats missed their best chance when they passed—by Hearst. He would have caught a large share of the Socialists and Union Labor voters and would probably have polled a larger Democratic vote.

The Democrats are entitled to the first prize for courage and perseverance. No matter how often they are beaten, they come forward in each campaign with fresh confidence and vigor and if defeated never surrender their hope for final victory; but when they do win, they make the most of their opportunity.

Republicans can afford to be magnanimous. Don't score your opponents too hard; they may capture some offices in the off years and then you would like to hold your jobs.

Of course to the victors belong the spoils, but let them down easy, so they won't be bruised in body or mind. They are good fellows, especially if you can win them.

Progressives Lose

NOVEMBER 8, 1912

Progressives will keep their colors flying.

Democrats have plenty reason to rejoice and feel good.

Taft, Deneen, et al, now regret they did not join the Progressives.

The Republican party served its day. Its death was sad but peaceful.

Most good people rejoice in the defeat of crazy Peter Bartzen. He will never fool them again.

Soon after the polls closed it began to rain—tears of joy for the victors and sorrow for the bereaved.

Chicago is a democratic city; the country towns are republican. Each ought to be divorced from the other.

The democratic landslide carried everything before it. It is only fair that they should have an occasional turn at the crib.

Progressives made a good showing and will be on deck next time to pick the political plums—if there are any left at the end of four years.

Woodrow Wilson has taken a big contract. He'll find it no easy job to satisfy all the hungry patriots who will be clamoring for official plums.

The Progressives made a grand showing, especially for a new party and short three months' campaign. Roosevelt, Johnson and Funk are vigorous and young enough to lead us on to victory next time.

The Democrats will have to "make good." With the President and both houses of congress, there will be no plausible excuse for not bringing about the reforms they promised. If they fail to keep faith, the people will give them the g. b. at the next turn of the wheel.

Gateway amendment as important as party ticket at Nov. 7 election

"Voters at the November 7 election are asked to help correct a well intentioned prohibition placed on amending our state constitution," says Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes of the Cook County Farm Bureau. "Whoever placed the clause in our present state constitution requiring a majority of all voters who vote in a general election before an amendment can be made to the constitution was certainly high-minded and well intentioned but completely ignorant of human nature when it goes to the polls to vote.

"An amendment to the constitution is impersonal. It is neither Democratic nor Republican. Yet it is a measure that vitally effects government in our state. The average voter takes one look at an amending ballot, knows nothing about it, and pushes it aside. In other words, in an average election a large majority of the voters never heard of, nor are interested in, a proposed amendment to the constitution. Their only interest is to vote Democratic or Republican or see that some friend is elected to office.

"However, under the amending clause of the present constitution, any proposed amendment must receive a majority of all votes cast. This means that all of these ballots that are pushed aside and no attention paid to them vote 'No,' and it is as impossible to pass and amendment to our constitution as it could have possibly been made and allow a majority decision.

"THE GATEWAY Amendment (although not so called on the ballot) is a proposal to change this amending clause so that a two-thirds majority of those who actually vote 'Yes' or 'No' are required to make an amendment. Let's keep in mind that before an amendment can be proposed in an election, it must still be submitted to the voters by the General Assembly of the State of Illinois. Also no more than three articles of the constitution may be amended at any one time.

"The dreary situation that the people of the State of Illinois face," continues Farm Adviser Hughes, "is that this Gateway Amendment must be passed under the present provisions of the constitution which is that all voters who favor changing the method of amendment must be in excess of 50% of those voting in this November 7 election. Therefore, every voter who pushes his ballot back as the voters have done in the past, time and time again when this proposition has been submitted will actually vote 'No.' We can never change the basic law of the State of Illinois.

"OUR STATE constitution was formed in 1870; and from that time until the present, which is a span of 80 years, only two amendments have been passed and those were in reference to the City of Chicago and the deep waterway. Other amendments have failed as regularly as they have been submitted. It has been because of the ballots that are not marked, on which the voter was indifferent, that caused the failure at the polls. Practically all organizations in the state not only the Farm Bureau, but both political parties; the Chamber of Commerce; Labor Organizations; State Bar Associations; — altogether 20 statewide organizations are asking that voters pass the Gateway Amendment to our state constitution.

"When you go to the polls, you will be handed this blue ballot. It has been colored this year to call it to the particular attention of the voter. If the voter leaves it in the booth as he usually does, he will be asked to go back and get it and at least give it to the clerk. The election officials cannot tell the voter to mark the ballot, but they are instructed to do everything they can to call it to the voters' attention.

"Let us keep in mind that the Gateway Amendment excludes counting votes not marked. However, a two-thirds vote is required to pass an amendment rather than a majority of votes," says Hughes.

"For these reasons Farm Bureau joins most of the statewide organizations in asking you to vote the Blue Ballot favorably at the November 7 election."

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Laurin have colorful trip thru Europe

by GLORIA JORGENSEN

This reporter felt as if she had been in Europe herself after viewing the colored slides the Elmer Laurins took while in Europe recently. The Laurins, who are now living in their new ranch home at 700 S. Beverly lane, Arlington Heights, spent two months touring Europe this fall.

A cog railroad transported them up and into a glacier in Switzerland. Mrs. Laurin said it was just like going into a tunnel of ice. People could ice-skate in this room, and ice figures lent decoration to the interior. As you left the tunnel you were actually walking on the glacier.

"I've never seen so many beautiful flowers," declared Mrs. Laurin while we were talking about their visit to Oslo, Norway. In Oslo all the light and telephone poles are decorated with baskets of flowers. A ferris wheel with seats filled with flowers is the main attraction in one of the city's squares.

In Oslo they visited Gustave Vigeland park which contains the Statute of Life, symbolic of all human life. The park was named after this sculptor and contains his work exclusively.

In Sweden the street cars are blue and yellow, the colors of its flag.

A picture of a modern apartment building in Stockholm led Mr. Laurin to explain that couples who have celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary are invited to live there without charge. There is another apartment house in this city for street car and train conductors exclusively and one for couples who must have at least three children. These apartments also have nurseries.

Sweden has an abundance of food, whereas you find no meat or fresh fruit with the exception of apples and pears in Norway.

"Sweden," Mrs. Laurin said, "reminds me of northern Minnesota except that all the farm houses are red with white trim."

IN DENMARK the Laurins visited the famous fish market in Copenhagen. They also have a picture of a striking Lutheran church which they were told took four men 20 years to build. This modern church is shaped like a Gothic window.

Mrs. Laurin remarked that the Scandinavian countries and Holland were cleaner and the people the best dressed in Europe. They also had the best food in these countries.

In Amsterdam, Holland, Mrs. Laurin said she saw as many Cadillacs and Lincolns as on Michigan blvd.

While showing some pictures taken in Belgium, Mr. Laurin suddenly stopped to point out three unimpressive looking buildings in Brussels. He explained that these three buildings housed the butcher, the baker, and the candlestick maker from which the children's nursery rhyme originated.

THE LAURINS made a thorough tour of Paris visiting Notre Dame, Sacre Coeur (Church of the Sacred Heart), the original Statue of Liberty, the Arch de Triumphe and the tomb of the unknown soldier. They also visited the flea market, open three days a week, where they sell everything.

Mrs. Laurin said she would like to stay in Paris a month instead of only four days. There was always something to do, and the people seemed so happy.

The first thing that caught the Laurins' eye in London was the advertisement outside their hotel window for Heinz Baked Beans. In London all the buses are red and the people stood in line without pushing and shoving to get a seat.

In London they visited Picadilly and Buckingham Palace where they saw the colorful change of guards and the sheep grazing on the palace grounds.

"All the homes in England have fences around them," said Mr. Laurin, "except the farm houses."

From London the Laurins flew to Dublin and then to Scotland where they visited all the Lochs.

IN GERMANY they visited Hanover, Hamburg, Frankfurt, and Stutgardt. They found that most of the Germans seemed to favor the Americans.

Crossing the ocean they traveled on French liners and both agreed they preferred the smaller ship on which they returned to the larger one. Their trip across the North Sea on a Norwegian freighter was superior to that on the Ocean liner according to Mrs. Laurin.

One thing Mrs. Laurin noticed is that with all their beautiful buildings and apartment houses, the Europeans do not have the conveniences we have in our American homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meredith, former residents of Arlington Heights now living in Lille, France, accompanied the Laurins through France and the Scandinavian countries.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Jane:

It has been a long time since I enclosed a recipe in a letter.

I thought of this while we were enjoying one of our "south of the border, down 'Mehico' way" recipes last week, and I wondered if I had ever sent the one called, "Shrimp Polenta." If I have not, here it is:

1 package frozen shrimp
½ lb. cooked ham diced
1 can Italian tomato paste
2 onions minced
1 buffet-sized can mushrooms (save the liquid)
3 slices bacon cut in 1-inch pieces
1 cup cornmeal, salt & pepper

Add the cornmeal to six cups boiling salted water and cook slowly until mushy, about 40 minutes. Fry the bacon in the skillet. Add the Italian paste, onions, mushrooms, ham, and liquid and cook in the bacon drippings. If the mixture is too dry, add a little water and simmer for 10 minutes. Place half of the cornmeal in the bottom of a deep well-buttered casserole, then half of tomato mixture, then half the shrimp, and repeat ending up with the shrimp on top. Bake in a medium oven (350 degrees) for 20 minutes. Serve four generously.

With this casserole, it is good to serve a green salad.

Here is a recipe, called Spaghetti chicken creole, that is excellent.

2 8-oz. cans boned chicken, diced
1 8-oz. package spaghetti
1 No. 2½ can tomatoes (save the juice)
1 buffet-sized can mushrooms (save the juice)
3 spring onions, tops and bulbs chopped
1 green pepper chopped (without the seeds)
4 slices bacon
Grated Parmesan cheese, salt and pepper.

Break spaghetti into 2-inch pieces. Put into large kettle of salted water and boil about 9 to 10 minutes. Do not boil until squashy. Fry bacon. Save one cup of tomato juice and mushroom juice mixed. Remove from skillet and saute green pepper and onion in bacon grease until golden brown. Add tomatoes, mushrooms, and chicken. Butter a low casserole and put 1/3 the chicken mixture, and repeat until there are three alternating layers of spaghetti and the chicken mixture. Pour a cup of juice over all and sprinkle the top with Parmesan cheese. Bake in medium oven of 350 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes. This serves four.

The following dessert recipe is positively delicious, but it wouldn't be the right one to use following either of the two casserole dishes I have just given you. But your family would rave about it, I'm sure, if you served it for Sunday dinner dessert.

Chocolate angel pie

2 egg whites
1/8 teas. salt
1/8 teas. cream of tartar
½ cup sifted granulated sugar
½ cup finely chopped nut meats
½ teas. vanilla
1 package German sweet chocolate
3 tablespoons water
1 teas. vanilla
1 cup cream, whipped

Beat egg whites until foamy; add salt and cream of tartar, and continue beating until mixture will stand in soft peaks. Add sugar gradually and continue beating until mixture is very stiff. Fold in nuts and ½ teas. vanilla. Turn into lightly greased pie pan and make a nest like shell, building up sides ½ inch above edge of pan. Bake in slow oven (300 F.) 50 to 55 minutes. Cool.

Place chocolate and water in sauce pan over low heat. Stir until chocolate is melted, and cool until thickened. Then add one teaspoon vanilla and fold into whipped cream. Turn into meringue shell. Chill several hours before serving. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Let me know what success you have if you try these.

With love, Mary.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

I know an elderly woman of 83 who for the past twenty years has been a burden and a heartache to her children and a disagreeable companion for everyone about her. She stayed for a while with one of her daughters, and then with another. She was never in a home more than a week before the whole household was upset, unhappy, and a pall of uneasiness and irritation fell over each member of the household. Finally arrangements had to be made for her to live by herself, or go to a convalescent home.

What was the matter? Was she ill? Yes, with some of the ailments which accompany old age — a touch of rheumatism, faulty vision and so forth. But her real trouble was her lack of gratitude to others. She was always complaining, finding fault, being sarcastic and bitter. One month in one of her daughter's homes and that daughter lost ten pounds because of the continual nagging and complaining.

Compare this with another elderly lady of 76 who was fought over by her children. Every son and daughter-in-law she had was anxious to have her visit them. She could stay for six months at one place, and when she left it was a major catastrophe, because they all loved her so much. She was crippled with arthritis, and suffering from a weak heart, but never once did she speak of her infirmities to the family except perhaps in a casual manner. She busied herself with the dusting, read to the children, but above all else she was grateful for everything they did for her and let the whole family know that she was. She praised when praise was due, advised when she thought advice was needed, but never in a criticizing or complaining manner. "She just offers suggestions," one of her daughters-in-law told me. "And does it so sweetly that you love her more for it!"

Gratitude for the things that others do for you is one way of making friends. Occasionally I meet a person who assumes that he is a little Jehovah, or perhaps that others don't appreciate him and he is always being abused. Such people only make life hard for themselves, unless they gain pleasure from the attitude they assume. Failure to show gratitude for the attention and kindnesses of others is a sure way to social ostracism. Often gratitude is accepted as payment in full for the kindnesses of others.

So when you check over why you may fail to impress others, if you feel discord between you and them, ask yourself the question, "Do I really show others that I appreciate their help or kindness?" Too many times to mention I have found that I have acted selfishly in failing to recognize and acknowledge kindnesses which others have shown me.

BEER LICENSE

A large crowd of folk favoring the granting of a "Beer or Ale" license to the Bowling Alley on Northwest Highway, will undoubtedly be present at the next village board meeting November 13. It is reasonable to suppose that this group will be very outspoken for their cause, seeking to influence the board to vote the license and ordinance in.

If the folk who are opposed to the granting of any more liquor licenses in Palatine, and in particular the one which will be presented in the proposed ordinance, were to appear in person at the board meeting, and—if they did not hesitate to speak their mind and heart on the matter, the three trustees who have already voted "yes" on the proposal, Whitenburg, Feddeler, Thieman, and Mayor Voss who threw the deciding vote last time, would be more likely to vote the issue down. Most certainly, the three trustees who have already voted "no" on the issue, Johnson, Angely, and McKown, would be greatly encouraged to again vote "no" November 13.

Remember, folks, it is not a question of what people can or cannot do in their own homes or in the now existing liquor dispensing points, but it is simply a question of not allowing this new temptation to be placed before our young people who come to the bowling alley for clean entertainment.

Isn't it high time that we stopped listening to the arguments that profit and loss in terms of money should determine what we allow to be sold in public places. Rather, the day has come when we must decide whether we will short-change our youth morally for the sake of an extra jangle of the cash register, or whether we will continue to keep clean the places of entertainment frequented by our young people.

Remember, if you want your wishes known at the next village board meeting, be there in person and speak your mind in kindness and fairness. In like manner, if you want your vote registered on November 7, be present in person at your polling place and VOTE.

VOTE TUESDAY

One of our most precious heritages is Freedom of Choice—the right of every citizen to vote, in secret, for the candidates of his choice. Every citizen has this right—and, it is his duty, as a citizen, to use it and vote.

We have had Freedom of Choice in this great land of ours for over 150 years. That's really not very long in the broad scheme of things, but it is long enough for too many of us to take it for granted. The failure of disinterested citizens to go to the polls on election day permits subversive elements and individuals to be elected into our government.

In the 1948 Presidential Election less than one half of the registered voters cast ballots. Just imagine how different things could be today if the other half, who were eligible to vote, had voted their convictions.

Unless we Americans wake up and all vote we stand to lose all of our Freedoms. Surely if Freedom is worth fighting for and dying for—it is at least worth voting for.

National sales up

The sales of National Tea Co. for the four weeks ending October 7, 1950 amounted to $24,383,997 as compared with $20,990,894 for the corresponding period of 1949, an increase of 17.11%.

Sales for the year to date amounted to $233,591,373 as compared with $206,846,292 in 1949 an increase of 12.93%.

The number of stores in operation decreased from 662 in 1949 to 634 at October 7, 1950.

Unless evergreens are watered now, the home owner is likely to face a "deep freeze" problem of his own this winter.

Thirst of these lush trees and shrubs knows no season. Since they retain their foliage, they give off moisture the year 'round. M. W. Staples, field supervisor of the Davey Tree Expert Co., reminds owners that that evergreens should get adequate "drinks" right up until the first big freeze. Otherwise, they may dry out, with ugly brown spots appearing to mar symmetry and health.

Some of our best decorative species tend to be shallow rooted. Thus, they not only require frequent watering, but protective coverings over their root areas. When the ground freezes, all moisture is turned to ice and is no longer available. But mulches of straw, leaves or peat moss will help to ward off deep frost. With consistent fall watering and with the "overcoat" protection for winter, it is usually possible to safeguard the moisture needs of our ornamental evergreens.

Fall watering, like watering done during the heat of summer, should be thorough to insure deep penetration. This encourages deeper root growth which is less affected by winter temperatures, in addition to being a desirable asset during periods of summer drought when surface areas are badly dried out.

JUST DOGS

Old Man Winter

Although we have been having some rather unusual Indian Summer weather during the last few weeks it won't be long until winter will start blowing his cold breath upon us and our dogs.

Because of the fact that our present day dog has given up most all of his wild life background he depends to a great degree upon his owner to help him through the winter months. With this in mind your editor wants to again repeat a few important facts about the winter care of your dog.

There are really three things which you can do towards insuring your dog against sickness, etc., which might come from cold weather. First, see that he is fed properly; secondly, that he is given plenty of daily exercise, and third, and perhaps one of the most important, a place to sleep that is dry and without drafts whistling around him. Dogs, regardless of breed, can stand much cold if they sleep in a dry, draftless place.

A number of people ask if it is a good idea to give their dogs baths during the winter months and the answer is yes; however, daily brushing lessens the need of bathing and on the whole, is very good for the dog. Brushing rather than baths every few weeks will perhaps help insure the dog against coming down with a cold picked up by not being quite dry enough before going outside.

Also, plenty of exercise amid the winter winds and snow is not only good for the dog, but of benefit to you. Dogs can do a pretty good job of being outdoor physicians for their owner's headaches and also an expanding waist line.

South Side Obedience

The South Side Obedience Club's 6th annual obedience trial held two weeks ago, actually on October 22nd, brought out an entry of around 260 dogs.

Folks from Bensenville, Palatine and other areas had dogs in the event which was held at the Chicago Avenue Armory in Chicago.

By the way, there were six rings for judging and some 153 trophies which the folks were out to win with their dogs.

Barks and Bays

Ever notice how people always say that even though they like most dogs that their's of course, is by far the best. That is what keeps interest alive and helps develop purebred dogs which are true to type and a credit to their owners.

English girl uses legacy to build Australian town

An unexpected legacy from an almost unknown uncle—this is a situation many dream about. Nevil Shute has used this theme in his latest novel The Legacy in which an English girl, Jean Paget, inherits a fortune large enough to support her in comfort for the rest of her life.

Jean is a 28 year old clerk-typist in England, differing from the average clerk in that she had spent several years in Malaya as a prisoner of war. She uses a small part of her money to return to Malaya to dig a well for a native village which had treated her kindly. In doing so she finds that an Australian cattleman who had helped her in her prisoner days is still alive. Australia becomes her next destination and the scene of the remainder of the book.

The plot has several exciting incidents. Outstanding is Jean's account of her seemingly endless journey across Malaya as a prisoner with a group of English women and children, trying to find a war camp where they may settle down. "People who spent the war in prison camps have written a lot of books about what a bad time they had," she said quietly. "They don't know it was like not being in a camp."

The largest part of the book deals with the imaginative and productive use she makes of her money, building a progressive little town from the ruins of an old gold-mining village.

The story is quietly told by the aging and lonely executor of her legacy. The people are mostly solid and good but not brilliant; the conversation is uninspiring, often dull, and full of a lot of Australian slang. One can learn a good deal about the "outback" of Australia, its huge cattle stations, ringers, bores, poddies, and the problems of this great territory in transportation and communication. The story Nevil Shute has to tell seems more important than the manner in which he tells it.

Television topics

by MAX RHODES

Is there such a thing as a lemon?

Perhaps the most common remarks made by consumers with whom we have had a series of service problems is that they have a "lemon." The general feeling is that if one or two failures occur in a receiver, the trouble is a basic one which involves the entire set and that continuous trouble can be expected in the future.

This impression is erroneous. Television receivers employ so many, many components that it is not usual for a series of failures to occur in the same receiver. The failure of almost any one of the thousand components will generally cause failure to the receiver. The law of averages works so that component failures are spread over a large number of receivers. Occasionally, the law of averages fails to work out, and one receiver may undergo a series of such failures. The best engineering advice indicates that the life and service expectancy of a receiver which has been repaired several times is at least as good as that of a brand new receiver.

These statements are predicated on the belief that the quality of service is good and that only the manufacturers' part are used as replacements.

In any event, there is no technical foundation whatever to the premise that a particular receiver can be more subject to failure than others. There is no such thing as a "lemon" in receivers of reliable manufacture. Often this difficulty arises because of troubles which are not connected with the receiver itself; and are therefore incurable. These may be the result of local receiving conditions; improper operation, and sometimes because of a particularly delicate defect which a serviceman cannot easily identify and repair.

Problems arise in which the solution is not easily discovered

There are many defects in television receivers which are difficult to analyze and trace. Although these represent only a small percentage of failures, it must be expected that our serviceman will frequently make attempts at repairs without success. It may be that a series of such attempts will be necessary before a final repair is effected. If you experience such cases, the serviceman should not be too severely criticized. Some of the most experienced men frequently fail to discover small annoying defects.

A completely dead receiver is much easier to diagnose than one with an intermittent condition and such conditions require patience on the part of the customer as well as the service man.

Western Electric increases wages

Some 12,000 hourly-rated Western Electric company employes at the Hawthorne works, Chicago, were granted increases on Wednesday, October 25, ranging up to 15 cents per hour in various job classifications.

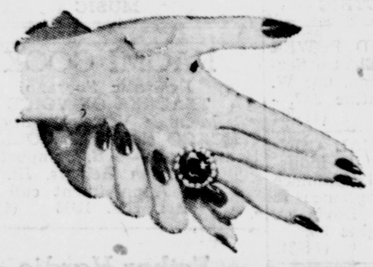

The raises were contained in a pact signed by company management and the Communications Equipment Workers union

National flower week October 29-November 5

Governor Adlai E. Stevenson has proclaimed the week beginning Sunday, October 29, as National Flower Week throughout Illinois, dedicated to the universal love of flowers and the beauty they add to our living moments.

Chicago and its nearby suburbs boast the world's largest growing center for indoor varieties of flowers. According to Hubert J. Wolfe, executive secretary of the Allied Florists' Association more roses are grown here, more carnations, than anywhere else in the universe, and in recent seasons Chicago greenhouses have also flowered the orchids, gardenias, camellias and other exotic types which used to come only from a great distance. Chicago sends its flowers today to almost every state in the union, using the airways to take orchids and roses in their greenhouse freshness to, for example, faraway Florida.

Legion to make sure hospitalized vets are not forgotten by Santa

The Illinois American Legion for the seventh consecutive year will make certain that Santa Claus again will make an appearance this year for the 15,000 veterans confined in 43 Illinois hospitals and institutions.

Lawrence J. Fenlon, of Chicago, state Legion Commander, has announced that plans have been completed for the 1950 "Christmas Gifts to Yanks Who Gave" program.

Object of the drive is to insure every one of the 15,000 hospitalized veterans — including more than 1,000 Illinois boys who have received disabilities in the Korean crisis—at least one gift from grateful citizens on Christmas day.

HOBBIES Yours and Mine

BY BETTY AINSLIE

What's more fun these brisky Fall days than to jump into the car, pick up a couple gal friends and breeze away for a day of antiquing or general looking in and out of shops.

Did just that the other day. Had heard a great deal about this Village Store at Longrove, Ill. so decided to amble down that way. It's only a very short eight miles or so from Arlington Heights and the ride is winding and lovely all the way.

IT SURE SEEMS as though most women have a yen for antiques. It may not be an active hobby with all the gals, that is they may not be avid collectors, but just hit some of these antique shops and the women scatter in search of some special piece of bric-a-brac to startle friend husband with that evening.

We wandered first into the Crossroads Exchange directly across the street from the Village Store. Never thought I'd spend about two hours—walking all the time too—before I finally emerged from the place. But by golly I got interested in the tons and tons of china, glass, furniture, jewelry and just about anything you can name displayed here.

Seems the place was started quite a few years ago by two women—mainly to get rid of a lot of things they'd accumulated in their homes. Now Mrs. Francis Schrayer is the manager and owner of this novel store.

Anyone with something to sell can take it there and set a price on the article. The Exchange takes a percentage for selling the things from the shop.

IT CAUGHT on like wild fire and several hobby minded women have things they make for sale there too. One lady makes hand braided rugs in bright lollypop colors. They're sturdy and quite inexpensive. Another woman bottles her own garden herbs and sells them here. They can be purchased separately or in gift packages with a chart to hang in the kitchen which helps the novice to learn the use of herbs, and to know just which ones to use for special dishes.

After putting up enough jam for her own family another woman had a lot of fruit left over so has home made preserves for sale. Another gal brings in a lending library once a week so folks there-abouts can borrow the latest books.

There is an attractive little tea room where you can refresh yourself with an afternoon cup of tea and home made cookies—you can get complete meals there too, if you're there near the lunch hour.

NEVER SAW so much stuff, not antiques exactly as you'll find modern paintings, electric trains and modern pieces of glass and furniture, but you just might happen to find the thing you've been hunting for whether it's jewelry or furniture.

If you've never seen the Village Store, it's well worth the trip to slip back a minute into your childhood when such stores were in every town. It's the old time store with all the trimmings including the cracker barrel, pot bellied stove, bolts of calico and the old coffee and spice bins. Gifts of all kinds are for sale here and it's a good place to find something unusual for holiday gift giving.

So before the air gets snowflakey hop in the family bus and take a swing around to Long Grove. Sure you'll enjoy it and the Exchange store shows how a bunch of hobby minded gals have turned their pastimes into hard cash.

Glenview dump legal costs now run $37,000

A hearing was held Oct. 31 on a proposal to end the legal action involving dumping of Chicago garbage in the clay pit north of Glenview.

At the suggestion of Judge Reid, the Citizens Action Association drew up a seven-point compromise under which it would agree to a consent decree which would end the legal action.

The points include ending dumping by next May 31; supervised dumping by the sanitary land fill method; the defendants to pay all legal costs; and the land be donated to the Glenview Park District for a park after it is filled.

In setting forth the costs, it ws revealed for the first time that the litigation to date has cost the CAA $10,790 which they have already paid, and $11,052 which they owe. In addition, the village has paid $16,145 in legal costs.

The big hitch in the proposal is the deadline of May 31, which the CAA says it will demand. The court has estimated it will take from 18 to 24 months to fill the dump at the present rate.

Exclusive hat shop to open in Des Plaines

Des Plaines' newest shop will open November the second, in the Prairie-Lee building.

This shop will fulfill a void in the feminine life of Des Plaines, inasmuch as it will now be possible to select a hat locally—an original designed to fit the purchaser's personality, an exclusive or imported model, or simply an everyday chapeau. A complete line of hats and accessories will be in stock at all times, and the slogan of the shop is, "We create to suit your personality."

The Flair Shop, and its exclusive designs in the latest flair in millinery, has been created by Velta Austin and Esther MacMillan, both of whom are well-known in Des Plaines. Exclusive and individually designed taffeta lingerie bags will also

Busse Advisor on good roads and board finances

No County Commissioner in Cook County has fought so consistently for good roads as has Commissioner William Busse. Many years ago he foresaw that good roads meant progress for the villages in the country towns area and consequently he has always advocated a good roads program for the entire county. The many miles of smooth highways within the area attests to the success of the Commissioners consistent campaign.

Besides his championing of good roads Commissioner Busse's knowledge of banking has made him a splendid advisor to the board in the complex financial situations with which the board is confronted. His level-headedness and mature judgment have saved the county many thousands of dollars in dealing with bond issues, appropriations, and other financial functions.

Mr. Busse seeks to be re-elected to the county board along with four other country town candidates. They are William N. Erickson, who seeks to be reelected as Commissioner as well as President of the Board, George Miller, George Nixon and John Mackler.

REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRAT ALIKE

Elect GILBERT Sheriff

Yes, Republican and Democrat alike, the four living State's Attorneys agree that the ONLY candidate for Sheriff who has ALL the qualifications to fight crime effectively is Daniel A. Gilbert. Robert E. Crowe twice-elected Republican State's Attorney says, "I have never heard any judge or State's Attorney adversely criticize his record as an honest, alert, fearless and efficient officer." Thomas J. Courtney said, "I have been fortunate in having Captain Daniel A. Gilbert as my Chief Investigator during all these years." William J. Tuohy said, "Gilbert is feared by every criminal and racketeer and his fine work helped send many of them to the penitentiary." John S. Boyle says, "Captain Gilbert's services with me more than justify his excellent reputation. I thoroughly rely upon him and trust him implicitly." These are the men who know the inside story of the never-ending fight against crime . . . they know why John Gunther, author of "Inside America" once called Captain Gilbert, "The Best Cop in the County". Yes, these past and present State's Attorneys of Cook County know Daniel A. Gilbert . . . REALLY know him for the able, honest and fearless law enforcement officer that he is. They know that fighting crime in Cook County is no job for an inexperienced amateur. Their recommendations are testimonials to integrity and ability such as few men have ever merited. They are Daniel A. Gilbert's just due . . . a fitting reward for 18 years' untiring, faithful service to Cook County residents as Chief Investigator for the State's Attorney's office. Heed the words of Men Who Know. Give Cook County a Sheriff who is really qualified to prevent and fight crime.

Marguerite Stite Church endorsements for congress

One of the most dynamic personalities to appear before the voters of this area is Marguerite Stitt Church, republican candidate for congressman from the Thirteenth district.

Although her own election is regarded as assured, she is making an average of seventeen speeches a week before both political and non-political groups and is helping actively in directing the strategy of the republican campaign.

Besides her addresses before the usual large political rallies, she is making frequent appearances before service clubs and other men's groups, among whom her talks are creating widespread interest and discussion.

In addition to these, a new audience has sprung up in this campaign. Throughout Lake county and in many Cook county areas, groups of women have been getting together, inviting Mrs. Church to speak before them and then organizing to work for the principles she is advocating. The spontaneous appearance of these groups of women, who usually have not taken an interest in politics before, is regarded as one of the most remarkable features of the campaign in the Thirteenth district.

All that matters

The urgency of Mrs. Church's message to the people of this district is the reason for her insistence on waging a crowded speaking program, although political advisers tell her she can be elected even without an active campaign. "I am expendable," she explains. "The only thing that matters is getting these truths home to the people."

Defense of freedom is the urgent task before all Americans, according to the republican Congressional candidate, for the peril to freedom in this country and throughout the world is so great and so close at hand as to be beyond the belief and comprehension of the average person. This peril is represented abroad by communism's ruthless aggression and by the spread of socialism and at home by the rapid drift toward statism brought on by the democratic party's long control of national affairs.

"The Korean war," Mrs. Church explains, "has merely intensified our awareness of this peril to freedom." The nation's unpreparedness at the start of the war, she reminds her listeners, shocked the American public into realizing the enormity of the administration's blundering.

Distinguished in own right

Although Mrs. Church bears a name prominent in legislative affairs of the state and nation, because of her late husband's long record of public service, she is an able and distinguished person in her own right, on the national scene as well as here in the Thirteenth district.

For 28 years she teamed with her husband, the late Congressman Ralph E. Church, in his political activities and in the conduct of his office as state legislator for 14 years and as Congressman for 14 years. In those years she won the admiration and respect of political coworkers. When her husband died suddenly at a Congressional hearing last March, the party leaders chose Mrs. Church as the best qualified person to succeed him on the ticket.

Because of her long familiarity with the Washington scene, Mrs. Church speaks from first-hand knowledge and with authority on national affairs. Her listeners in this campaign have found her revelations interesting and illuminating.

Honored in Washington

Evidence of her high standing in the national capitol is the fact that she is now president of the Congressional club, composed of wives and daughters of present and former members of the House, the Senate, the Cabinet and the Supreme court. She is the first Illinois woman to hold this honor.

Her political activities have included assignment to country-wide speaking tours for the National Republican committee in the Presidential campaigns of 1940 and 1944.

Her experience and knowledge in world affairs have come in large measure from her activities in behalf of peace. She was named in 1935 as the woman speaker before the Institute of World Affairs in California, and her address was subsequently published. She accompanied her husband to the Interparliamentary Union conference in Oslo, Norway, in 1939. He was a delegate from the U. S. Congress.

Studies restrictions in England

Just last year she spent four months in research in Europe, at the request of her husband, studying displaced persons, camps, German youth activities and other elements of the post-war situation. She spent five weeks touring Great Britain by auto studying the effects of restrictions imposed by the British labor government.

Her personal interest in the Asiatic scene stems from her lifelong friendship with Mme. Chiang Kai-shek, who like Mrs. Church is a Wellesley graduate.

At Wellesley Mrs. Church made a brilliant scholastic record, graduating with highest honors, after receiving her Phi Beta Kappa key in her junior year. She received a master's degree in political science at Columbia university and interrupted her study for a Ph.D. there to become a consulting psychologist during World War II.

Active in welfare work

Mrs. Church has lived in this area for 31 years. She has always taken a prominent part in the civic and welfare activities, here and also in Washington.

She is a trustee of National College of Education, former member of the board of Family Welfare association of Evanston, member of the board of the Evanston Receiving Home for Children, member of the senior board of the Evanston Infant Welfare society, member of the North Shore auxiliary of the Chicago Maternity center, former member of the women's board of the Emergency hospital of Wsahington, trustee of Barney Neighborhood house of Washington, and member of the women's committee of the National Safety council.

Mrs. Church lives in Evanston at 300 Church street with her daughter, Marjorie, who was graduated from Wellesley last June and is preparing to begin graduate study there. Also residents of Evanston are her two sons, Ralph E. Church, Jr., and William S. Church, both World War II veterans.

Alkyd Resins

Important ingredients of today's flat wall paints of high quality are the new alkyd resins. Paints made with such resins are reported to be easier brushing and to save up to 25 per cent on brushing time. Better washability, non-penetration and good color retention are other reported properties.

Max Larsonneur has plenty of experience in public activities field

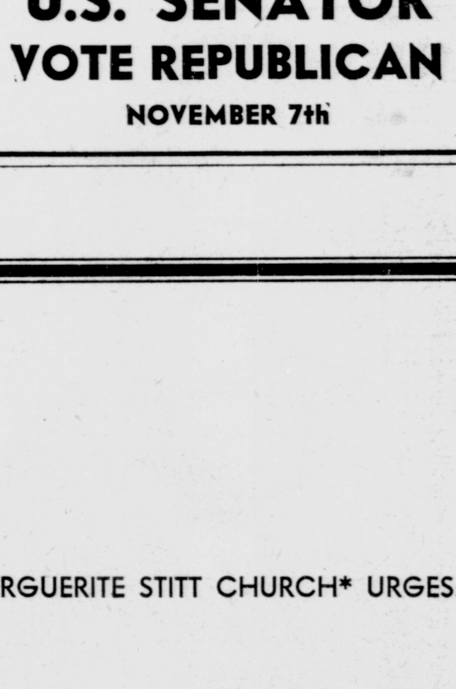

Max Larsonneur, for 20 years a resident of Oak Lawn, and active in civic and American Legion activities during most of that time, is the Democratic candidate for state senator in the 7th Senatorial District.

During World War II Larsonneur served as acting coordinator of Oak Lawn Civilian Defense and had the responsibility of maintaining a control alerting center for nine neighboring towns.

Charter member of Green Oak Post 757 of the American Legion, he served his Post in all offices, including commander, served for many years as 8th District GAR Memorial Day activities chairman; served the Cook County Council of the American Legion Fourth of July committee, who are responsible for the annual show at Soldier's Field, for several years; Cook County Council executive committeeman from the 8th District; served on state and national convention committees; ways and means member of the Past Commander's club; Cheminot of Voiture 220 of the American Legion's 40 and 8 and is a member of the Loyal Order of the Moose and the Shrine.

Civic Leaders Praise Clark; Urge Re-election as Assessor

JOHN S. CLARK

County Assessor John S. Clark, the man who modernized assessment methods here, has long been regarded as an example of good government in action.

As the county's first elected one-man assessor, Clark has always worked for equality in assessments.

Under his direction, real estate and personal property evaluations were brought up-to-date. He abolished the assessments of ordinary household furnishings, long an unfair burden on the average taxpayer.

He devised standard evaluations for land and buildings, thus doing away with the old assessment methods which had been laid down under the horse-and-buggy principles of a state constitution which dates back to 1818.

Equity in Assessments

James A. Cunningham, vice president of Chicago University, and chairman of the Non-Partisan Citizens' Committee to re-elect Clark, says: "Mr. Clark deserves the support of Democrats and Republicans alike. His record stands as an effective and efficient performance of public office. He is recognized as a leader in modern, scientific methods of property assessing."

Supporting Clark's re-election are many professional and business leaders in Chicago and Cook county, Cunningham states.

"Mr. Clark's good government," Cunningham relates, "has resulted in his endorsement by such outstanding civic leaders as Simeon E. Leland of Northwestern University, Walter J. Cummings of the Continental Illinois National Bank, Arthur R. Kaiser of Sears, Roebuck and several others.

"These men have praised Clark for his steadfast principle of equity in assessments for all," he declares.

Cunningham also points out that today, since the elimination of unnecessary personal property assessments, tax collections have increased $10,000,000 on personal property.

Before Clark became the county's first elected one-man assessor, property valuations were determined by a Board of Assessors. Because the individual members of the Board could operate singly, and because each assumed a certain section of the city as his own territory, inequality of assessments resulted.

The same was true in the country townships outside of Chicago. The township assessors were able to function independently of each other. Each Board assessor or township assessor could assess as he saw fit, and favoritism was practiced.

As inequality in assessments became more and more apparent, the assessment machinery became weaker and weaker until finally it broke down in 1927.

This was known as the chaotic tax strike when 300,000 taxpayers refused to pay taxes in protest to unfair increases in assessments. The unfair increases came about when the Illinois Assembly increased property valuations from 50 percent of full value to 100 percent because of pressure from Chicago which wanted to up its bonding power.

Led Finance Committee

As a result of the overhauling of assessment procedures, and following a survey to improve methods here, and because the Board of Assessors could not seem to operate efficiently, the Legislature in 1932 acted to provide for a one-man assessor for Cook county.

At that time Clark was chairman of the City Council's important Finance Committee and had served 18 years as a member of the Council. He also headed one of the oldest real estate firms in Chicago.

Because of his vast experience in municipal government and wide knowledge of real estate values, Clark received the Democratic nomination for assessor, was elected in 1934, and has held that important office ever since.

His first step was to improve the methods of assessments of personal property including tangibles such as stocks, bonds and cash bank deposits.

Fair Home Valuations

Next, after conferring with real estate experts, tax authorities and business men, he decided to assess real estate according to the earning powers of the property.

Values, Clark believed, should reflect a fair return on real estate investments. The "ability to pay" principle was set forth as an aid to home owners as well as to business men whose income depends on rentals of apartments, houses and offices.

Clark also asserts that a homeowner should not pay a tax based on a house that cost a premium price. When assessing newly built homes, the assessor does not consider current inflationary buying and selling prices, he says.

One of Clark's first moves when elected was to put his office staff on civil service. This assured his staff of job security, and at the same time assured the public of competent, well trained appraisers and assessing experts.

A laudable public servant and business man for more than 35 years, Clark has received wide recognition for having one of the most progressive and efficiently managed offices in county govern-

Daley, after 13 years service, is candidate on his own

Cook county voters, along with millions of other free American citizens, will be going to the polls November 7.

We have an opportunity to back up our fighting men on foreign fronts by making democracy work at home. Each vote we cast in these trying times is a blow for freedom.

More than ever before we need to vote, and vote intelligently.

Among the positions we will be asked to fill are those for several important county posts. With election day only a short time off, we might honestly ask ourselves, "How much do we know about our county government?"

What, for example, should we know about the office of Cook county clerk, his duties and responsibilities, so that we may vote intelligently?

In the interest of a better informed public, we put this question to Richard J. Daley who has been associated with the County clerk's office for over 13 years.

For well over a decade Daley was deputy comptroller for the County clerk during which time he modernized the operations of the office, increasing its efficiency and economy through more streamlined methods.

Upon the death of County Clerk Michael J. Flynn last March, Daley was named to the post and is now the Democratic candidate for that office.

He was formerly Illinois Director of Revenue, serving as one of the key men in the Stevenson administration.

Here is a summary of the important phases of the County clerk's duties as outlined by Daley.

To begin with, the position of County clerk is one of the oldest in the county, as old in fact as the county itself. Actually, it is not one job, but three.

The man in that post is not only County clerk, he is also comptroller and clerk of the board of county commissioners and clerk of the county court.

Nearly every resident of Cook county at some time in his life is affected by the operations of the County clerk's office.

The issuance of marriage licenses, tax deeds, real estate maps and notary certificates.

Conducting tax searches, recording fees, handling of tax redemptions, forfeitures, etc.

The County clerk sets the property tax rate according to how much revenue is needed and what sources are available. The latter is based on property valuation set by the state revenue department and the local assessors.

Among his duties is to make sure this tax rate does not exceed statutory limitations.

The County clerk also has jurisdiction over election machinery in the areas not covered by the board of election commissioners.

As comptroller and clerk of the board of county commissioners he is also the financial agent of the county. He controls and disburses funds for the proper administration of local governments.

Finally, he is responsible for maintaining the records of the county court.

All in all, a big job and an important one, probably one of the most important administrative posts in the county.

TAX FACTS

By George Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

Will the proposed Gateway Amendment, to be voted upon November 7 on the blue baliot, open the door for a state-levied, graduated income tax? That seems to be the $64 question in the minds of many voters. The Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois is as opposed as it is possible to be a graduated state income tax. Yet the Taxpayers' Federation has endorsed the Gateway Amendment, and recommends a "yes" vote on the blue ballot November 7. It is evident, therefore, that the Taxpayers' Federation does not believe that the Gateway Amendment is even a slight step in the direcion of a graduated state income tax.

If the Gateway Amendment is approved by the voters November 7, any future amendment to the State Constitution will still have these hurdles to clear: Approval by 2/3 of all the members of the State Senate; approval by 2/3 of all the members of the State House of Representatives; and approval at a general election by 2/3 of those voting on the amendment, or a majority of all those voting at the general election whether they vote on the amendment or not.

If an amendment to permit a graduated income tax could clear all these hurdles in the face of all-out opposition by the Taxpayers' Federation and other organizations, it would be crystal clear evidence that the people of Illinois wanted it.

On the other hand, there is real danger of a Constitutional Convention, if the Gateway Amendment fails—and there is real danger of a graduated state income tax resulting from a Constitutional Convention.

The Constitutional Convention proposal—commonly known as Con-Con—was backed by the State administration and failed of passage at the last Illinois General Assembly principally because the Assembly preferred the Gateway Amendment approach.

If the Gateway Amendment is defeated November 7, and a proposal for a Constitutional Convention is later approved by the General Assembly as is not improbable with administration support, then Illinois citizens can be saddled with a graduated income tax by a majority vote of those voting on the proposed constitutional changes as a whole —and at a special election to boot.

Con-Con presents a real threat of a graduated income tax. The Gateway Amendment does not.

A Republican elected County Judge may decide presidency in 1952

The chance of electing a Republican president in 1952 may be decided by the voters of Cook county at next Tuesday's election, Granville Beardsley, Republican candidate for county judge, is pointing out in this final week of the campaign.

Beardsley recalled the charge repeatedly made by the Women's Civic council and other groups that more than 100,000 fraudulent votes were cast in Chicago in the 1948 presidential election. This charge, he said, has never been denied by the present Democratic county judge or the Board of Election commissioners which he appoints and controls.

"If the presidential election of 1952 is closely contested," Beardsley said, "the outcome may well depend on the result in Illinois. And if the vote is close in this state, the result is a foregone conclusion if the present Democratic county judge is reelected, because the frauds of 1948 will be committed again."

BEARDSLEY, who was endorsed in the Chicago Bar Association primary by a vote of 4½ to 1, has a program to prevent fraudulent voting and to have the vote counted as it is cast. The Bar association's Committee on Candidates says of him:

"He is industrious, fair minded, honest, has moral courage, and is a public spirited citizen. He is calm in judgment, alert, and possesses in a high degree a temperament for judicial office. He is well qualified to be county judge."

Beardsley is a veteran of both World Wars, in which he rose from private to lieutenant colonel. He was overseas two years and served with General Stilwell in India, being awarded the Legion of Merit. He is an officer in the reserve and is active in veterans' affairs.

He has a background of 25 years as a lawyer. He was assistant state's attorney for four years, and special assistant attorney general for three years. For the past four years he has been attorney for County Treasurer Louis E. Nelson.

Beardsley, who is 52, has been active in Cook county Republican politics since he cast his first vote. He resides with his wife and son at 10900 S. Oakley ave., Beverly Hills.

Election Tuesday, November 7, 1950

TALES of the STREET

—T. C. HART

● THE TIME HAS COME

This is it. Election is only a few days away.

The most important thing that faces every adult American on Tuesday, November 7, is to vote.

At least the voters should make their wants known in such volume that the result of the elections will not be determined by a majority of hardly half of the voters who are entitled to vote, which has been what has been happening in recent elections bcause of the apathy of the voters.

This is an important election, the future of the American way of life for generations to come hangs in the balance.

So we continue on a wild spending spree to help everyone on earth and at the same time bring our own nation to the brink of bankruptcy or do we get some sort of sanity in government?

Do we give a blank endorsement to the Truman administration to take us into wars all over the world under the United Nations, or do we let Congress do our war declaring for us as provided by the constitution?

We are not hearing a lot about controls right now, it's close to election but just watch the controls, the rationing and everything else fall on us after the election if all goes well for the planners, the Commie Coddlers and the one worlders who think of everyone's interest but America's.

This 1950 election on November 7 is a show down.

Control of Congress by the Truman administration will mean we can expect anything, unbearable taxes, controls of everything, the pouring out of American rersources to help arm about all the nations on earth so they can defend themselves—and a lot of them aren't keen about helping themselves to even defend themselves. They'd rather let "Uncle" do it.

Whether we lead the free life of independent Americans or the regimented life of the planners of the socialistic state, with its strangling hand at the throat of a once free America, depends upon the results of the coming election.

Here in Illinois, Scott W. Lucas, majority leader of the Senate and one of the social planner's "fair-haired boys" is a candidate for re-election and is being opposed by Everett M. Dirksen, former congressman who made an outstanding record in the Congress of the United States.

EVERETT M. DIRKSEN
Candidate for U. S. Senator

Dirksen stands for a free America and is opposed to socialized medicine, the Brannan farm plan and all the other crackpot theories, policies and dreams of the planners of the socialistic state. In the Senate he will be a power for America, not a rubber stamp for the administration as is Lucas.

Here in the 13th congressional district, the republican candidate for Congress is Mrs. Margueriate Church, widow of the late Congressman Ralph Church. Mrs. Church stands for the same sort of a platform as does Dirksen.

She stands for America and the American way of life. She, like Dirksen, is unalterably opposed to socialized medicine, the Brannan farm plan and all the other hopped up pipe dreams of the "socialized staters."

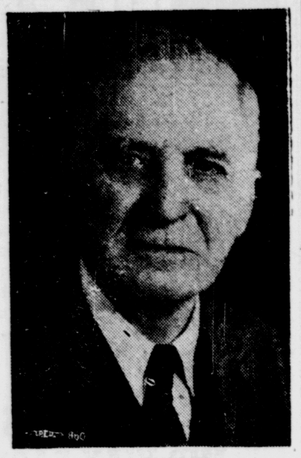

The voters of this district have a great opportunity November 7 to help send to Washington two outstanding Americans who believe in America, its free enterprise system and all the other things that a free America means to its people.

Keep America free. This column strongly urges every voter in the 13th district who believes in the American free enterprise system and who is opposed to a socialized state to vote for Everett M. Dirksen for United States senator and for Margueriite Stitt Church for representative in the Congress.

● THOSE SPLIT BALLOTS

Let's just remind each other again about those split ballots that are going to be voted next Tuesday where Ed Haseman, local candidate for county commissioner is going to pick up a lot of republican and independent votes.

Everyone who casts a vote for Ed and wants to vote for four republican county commissioners should put a cross (X) in the square in front of each republican he wants to vote for even if he has already marked the party circle.

WM. BUSSE
Candidate for re-election to
Board of County Commissioneds

If each candidate is not voted for individually the vote for Haseman will be the only one that counts and the four republicans will be cancelled out. So if you split your vote on county commissioners, be sure to mark for each of the five you vote for in whatever column they may be.

● BALLOT MARKING

We've had some of the election workers ask us if there isn't some way whereby the public can be taught not to use a check mark in voting, but to be sure and use the cross (X).

There seems to be a certain number of voters in Palatine township who lose their vote at every election by using the check mark instead of the cross (X).

We have seen that neat well made check mark show up at all sorts of elections, national, village, township, school—whatever was being voted on would have a neat check, which simply means that those votes are always thrown out.

The people who make those check marks are evidently civic minded. They want to vote because those checks show up at every sort of an election but those votes are never counted.

Those folks who mark at the polls ask those people, "Please won't you mark your ballot so it can be counted?" Mark a cross (X) in front of who or what you are voting for in the square or the circle and please, please, forget about those neat check marks, because you are losing Tales of Street (Cont) ..... your time and your vote by marking your ballot that way.

The (X) is the only legal way to vote.

● MORE CABBAGE

This year is liable to go down in history as the year of the big cabbage.

Walter Schinkowsky brought in a whale of a cabbage the other day, but it seemed sort of loose and hollow, but Walter insisted it weighed 15 pounds. A. C. Kaup, the truck farmer sent us a big cabbage that was as solid as a rock and he only claimed 14 pounds for that one.

Folks who have handled both of these whoppers declare that the Kaup cabbage is heavier than Walter's even if it doesn't take up as much space. Well, anyhow, it's the year of the big cabbages and what's a pound or two between friends.

Mr. Kaup says cabbage is only bringing 60 cents a crate and by the time the grower has furnished the crate, raised the crop and done all the work where does he get off at that price.

Also Mr. Kaup has some great carrots, but the price is $18.00 a ton. Again, where does the grower get off?

Senator Lucas and the administration which is so great on subsidies for everything to keep the farmers happy and keep them voting for the fair deal program might well look into the matter of subsidies for the truck growers who also need help when prices go to pot.

And then if the Army comes along and takes the sons of the truck farmers who are doing a lot of the work on the home truck farms, it just about means that the trucker has got to go out of business.

Low prices for his crops and having to compete for help in a high priced labor market can just about put a truck farmer out of business. How about the "do gooders" giving a little thought to the embattled truck farmers in one off year?

● KATYDID COACH

He's at it again—Up at Lake Zurich the other day between halves of the Palatine-Ela football game Coach Dick Welty of the Palatine squad again disappeared off under the forest trees to commune with nature and pop up his squad for the second half.

Dick is a great believer in communing with nature and gaining inspiration from the trees and the insects.

At the Palatine pep meeting before the homecoming game, Coach Welty alluded to his team as "the F.L.V.'s—Fading Lilies of the Valley." He told them if they played a good game they might be known as lilies of the valley without the fading part.

Well, if Dick calls his boys Lily of the Valley players, they are liable to come back and call him the "katydid coach." Katydids you know also like the company of the trees and the forests.

●—LONG SEASON

After all the lateness of the spring this has turned out to be a late season, gardens still producing and flowers still blooming the last week in October.

We planted some fall garden along early in August, but about gave up when the seeds failed to come up because of the continued dry weather.

Then along came some fall rains and the things started to come up with the result that we have enjoyed plenty of fine lettuce and even some nice green snap beans along the latter part of October. It's been a nice long season after all and the flowers in particular have been a riot of color these late fall days and that glorious hunter's moon shining through the colored leaves has made the evenings a time of beauty.

● LOCAL CANDIDATES

Not for a long, long time, if ever, have the Northwest towns had as many candidates on the big tickets as they have this year.

Three candidates from the northwest towns are on the ballot in next Tuesday's election.

First and foremost there is William Busse of Mt. Prospect, old Mr. Republican himself running for reelection as a member of the county board. The record of Bill Busse in his over half a century in public life is too well known to need any comments here.

As deputy sheriff, county commissioner, president of the county board and then again as a member of the county board for many years Mr. Busse has made a record equalled by few men in public life.

Not once during all those years has the finger of suspicion been pointed his way, his record is clear and clean, a record that Bill Busse and all of the people of Cook county may well be proud.

The old war horse of the republican party is again a candidate and his election is a foregone conclusion.

Another candidate for member of the county board, this time on the democratic ticket is Edward J. Haseman of Palatine.

Ed Haseman is an energetic active and enthusiastic young business man who by his own efforts has made a success in life.

This is his first try for public office outside of being a former member of the Palatine park board and while Ed is running in an overwhelmingly republican territory he has put up a vigorous campaign, made a lot of friends and if elected county commissioner would give a live and active representation to the people of the country towns.

The third local man who is a candidate next Tuesday is Noble J. Puffer of Barrington, who is a candidate for county superintendent of schools.

Mr. Puffer was county superintendent of schools for several years prior to 1946 and made a fine record in that office.

He was universally well liked by the school men of the county and is fully equipped by experience and education to again handle the job.

Mr. Puffer is at present Director of Education and Registration for the State of Illinois but his first love is the schools of Cook county and the democratic organization could not have found a better liked or more qualified man for superintendent of schools than the man who was a credit to that office for many years.

These three local men are bound to receive a lot of votes from outside their own party and they are three men who can be depended upon to fill their positions with credit to themselves and the people they represent if elected to office.

● VOTE NEXT TUESDAY

Tusday, November 7th is the day.

Nowhere in the world are the people given the opportunity to vote in free and uncontrolled elections as they are here in America.

Voting apathy during recent years has been apalling, yet people complain about the kind of officials they have in office.

Any political machine regardless of party can be beaten. Machines get out the machine vote, but popular opinion expressed at the polls can defeat any machine. If we are machine controlled it is our own fault. If the public will take an active interest in public affairs any machine can pe beaten.

Here in America the ballot is secret and free, far from the one ballot system of the countries behind the iron curtain. Let's keep it that way—use your God given rights as an American citizen and vote next Tuesday.

EDWARD J. HASEMAN
Candidate for Member
Board of County Commissioners

NOBLE J. PUFFER
Candidate for County
Superintendent of Schools

How important are you?

Frequently you hear this question: "What good will one vote do?" Well, one vote has a lot to do with a lot of things in this country:

Thomas Jefferson was elected by one vote in the electoral college.

So was John Quincy Adams.

Rutherford B. Hayes was elected president by one vote. His election was contested, and it was referred to an electoral commission. Again he won by a single vote.

The man who cast that deciding vote for President Hayes was a Congressman from Indiana, a lawyer who was elected to Congress by a margin of just one vote. And that one vote was cast by a client of his who, though desperately ill, insisted on being taken to the polls to vote.

Just one vote gave statehood to California, Idaho, Oregon, Texas and Washington.

Now you may say that the one vote applies only to the past. Well, don't forget that the Draft Act of World War II passed the house by just one vote . . . And you can carry this one vote history on and on.

Over 1,800,000 eligible voters did not vote in Illinois in 1948 and of these 900,000 were not registered.

North Cook to vote on soil conservation Nov. 7

Farm voters in North Cook County will have a second election November 7. This will be for Directors of the newly formed Soil Conservation District. When you go to town to vote, go to the Farm Bureau office, Arlington Heights, and vote, also, for these directors who have been nominated and are:

1. Emil Hattendorf from Hanover Twp.
2. Karl Rost from Barrington Twp.
3. Wilmer Rohlwing from Elk Grove Twp.
4. Henry Koehler from Maine Twp.
5. Herbert Mueller from Maine Twp.

Or others you may wish to write in.

These men elected will direct the affairs of the newly formed district. When a Soil Conservationist is assigned to this district, he will operate under the direction of these men who serve without pay. No procedure will go out to farmers unless approved by this board.

Mr. Flint, the District Supervisor, will have this board in charge at the beginning and with them he will work out conservation practices that apply to North Cook vegetable and general farming areas. "It seems probably to me that in time," says Farm Adviser Hughes, "that other men will be added to this mixed group and it will be divided into a vegetable and general farming sections, with one operating out of the Truck Growers headquarters at Des Plaines, and the other from the Farm Bureau. This will be developed in time with Mr. Flint and the board."

Give this board of candidates your support by dropping into the Farm Bureau office and voting for them, Tuesday, November 7th. The voting will be only from 8:00 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon.

Power Takes Over Poultry Work

* * * * * * * *

Helps Farmer Place Chores on Automatic Basis

Adequately Wired, Equipped Two-Story Poultry House

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

The poultry business can be profitable, but it can be hard work, too. How hard, depends on the number of chores which can be done by mechanical means. Fortunately, most poultry operations are "made to order" for various devices which can do automatically what formerly required a large amount of personal attention.

Many of these "chore helpers" are operated by electricity. The above illustration shows some of them installed in a 2-story poultry house. It also indicates what is needed in the way of adequate wiring—the key to efficient operation of all types of electrical equipment. Information on electrical circuits is listed to the right of the floor plan, and data on the electrical symbols, shown the sketch, appears to the right of the isometric drawing of the poultry house.

It has been proven that the maintenance of a proper lighting schedule —13 to 14 hours of light every 24-hour period—will help keep egg production high during off-peak months. This means that natural light must be supplemented by artificial lights during fall, winter and early spring. See to it, therefore, that your lights are installed as recommended by your power supplier or College Extension Department.

To control the lighting schedule with the desired degree of regularity, automatically and without personal attention, is the job of the time switch, shown on the wall in the feed room. These devices operate equally well for all lighting practices. The poultry house, shown, features such time saving equipment as an electrically operated automatic mash feeder, pressure system connected to automatic waterers and immersion heaters to keep the water from freezing. Water pipes can be protected in freezing weather by wrapping them with heating cable—a simple and inexpensive job, but one which enables farmers to use their water systems throughout the year. The sketch also shows an electric hover-type brooder in the feed room. This is one of several which would be rqeuired for a poultry operation of the size pictured. Electric brooding is safe, saves time and labor and offers automatic operation.

Other electrical highlights of this poultry house include a stationary elevator for moving feed between floors, and ventilation system to remove excessive moisture from the building and provide a healthier atmosphere for the flock and workmen.

LAW on the FARM

Land Surveys

Most Illinois farmland is described legally by what is known as the "rectangular survey system." This is based on the division of the total land area into townships, the townships into sections, and the sections into particular described parts—generally either quarters or halves of larger quarters or halves or quaters of the section itself. Some land is described by "metes and bounds." This means that a monument or point of beginning must first be located. Then the particular land is "enclosed" by distances and angles.

Most land has by this time been adequately described, but frequently a buyer and seller or adjoining owners are not sure of the boundaries or cannot agree on where a property line should be.

Illinois law provides that when adjoining landowners agree, they may " . . . enter a written agreement to employ and abide by the survey of some surveyor . . . " If they cannot agree on a survey but one party desires that a survey be made, he may serve notice on the objecting party and, by following a procedure which calls for service of notice, appointment of a commission of surveyors by the circuit court and hearing the determination by the court, obtain a settlement of the property line. The court may determine, upon examination of the facts, that the line should not be changed.

The law on quadrennial assessment of real estate makes it the duty of the landowner to have his land surveyed and plotted into lots when it can be described only by metes and bounds.

Another law makes it the duty of the county judge to appoint a surveyor to make a survey when a property owner files a certified written complaint that mines are encroaching under his land.

There is still another law — one providing that any person willfully or maliciously destroying or injurying a monument or boundary marker shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Two parties may of course settle a boundary dispute between themselves and re-establish the line in any manner they desire.

The laws referred to are in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 133, Sections 1-15; Chapter 120, Sections 516, 517, and Chapter 94, Sections 2 and 3.

1950 corn loan rate set at $1.48 bushel

The price support rate for 1950 corn has been set at $1.48 per bushel for Cook County, according to Mr. Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the local County PMA Committee.

This is 7 cents per bushel above the county rate for 1949 corn, and is reflective of a higher support rate throughout the county due to an increase in parity index. The National loan rate which averages $1.47, reflects 90 per cent of parity as of October 1st.

"Only producers who have complied with acreage allotment requirements will be eligible for price support under this year's program," said Mr. Bormet.

Producers who are eligible for price support will have an opportunity to secure either loans or purchase agreements on their corn. Other details relative to moisture, grade and storage requirements, and to application and maturity dates will soon be available in the County PMA office.

Pinky wuzn't fuzzy, wuzzshe?

"Born without hair and still as bald as a kernel of corn 'Pinky,' the hairless cow is featured in the November issue of National Live Stock Producer, a farm publication. The 17-month old cross bred Guernsey is owned by Fred E. Pormen, farmer near Gaston, Ind. And she is pink from head to toe except when sunburned, and then she's pinker.

"It's her baldness rather than her color, though, that makes 'Pinky' a problem cow. Soon she will have to don overalls and blankets as the weather gets colder. When 'Pinky' was born in June, 1949, Mr. Pormen thought he had a sick calf on his hands, but she proved to be healthy and normal—except for lack of hair. The veterinarians have no explanation. They shake their heads and say, 'It's just one of those things.'

"Mr. Pormen is getting tired of explaining to curious visitors that 'Pinky' is sensitive about having people touch her to feel how smooth she is. And he has about made up his mind that Pinky belongs in a zoo or sideshow rather than on a busy farm. Neighbors have asked Mr. Pormen to have the cow bred to see if she will have pink and hairless calves. 'That's unlikely,' he replies, 'one pink cow around the farm is enough'."

Clean corn works best in artificial dryers

Corn picked for ear drying on your farm should be husked as clean as possible.

Frank Andrew, extension agricultural engineer at the Illinois College of Agriculture, points out that clean corn will dry much faster and more evenly than corn mixed up with lots of husks and dirt.

One of the best ways to husk clean is to have your picker set right. Then use it when the moisture of the corn is just right for getting the husks off best.

You can get husks, silks and dirt out of ear corn at the crib by putting in a blower at the wagon dump. Take out the shelled corn by putting in a screen on the bottom of the elevator.

ANDREW SUGGESTS that you move the elevator spout around so that you won't pile up shelled corn and other material in one spot to interfere with the air flow through the corn.

If you dry corn with a fan, with either heated or unheated air, he suggests that you keep the following points in mind:

1. Check with your county farm adviser for the latest information about ventilators and air-duct systems. They need to be large enough and put in right, or they may do more harm than good.

2. In general, supply at least five cubic feet of air per bushel.

3. Do not heat the air to more than 140 degrees F.

4. Install proper controls to safeguard the equipment against any failure of temperature or operation.

5. Watch out for fire if you use heated air. Keep trash cleaned up, animals away, provide fire-fighting equipment and keep insurance up to date on the building.

Milk payments

Cook-DuPage County dairy farmers received $15,963.67 for milk delivered to Bowman Dairy Company receiving stations during the month of September. Monthly figures are sent to this newspaper as soon as they are compiled at Bowman's general office.

Des Plaines theater safe with $200 taken

Sometime between midnight Saturday and 6 a. m. Sunday, October 22, burglars entered the Des Plaines theater manager's office and removed a small safe containing $200 cash, tickets and valuable papers. They then dragged or carried the safe to the first exit door on the east wall of the theater and left the building. The safe was transported to a waiting automobile in the parking lot to the rear and east of the building in which the burglars fled the scene.

2500 attend Elgin breeding co-op open house

More than 2,500 members and visitors from northern Illinois counties and adjacent states attended the recent Open House of the Northern Illinois Breeding Co-Op held at their bull barn eight miles northwest of Elgin.

This Open House featured an exhibit of 90 daughters of bulls now in service for the Co-op members and was planned to show the accomplishments of breeding better dairy cattle during the past ten years, or since April of 1940 when the artificial breeding program in Illinois was started with cooperating farmers in Kane, Lake, McHenry and parts of Boone, DeKalb, DuPage, and Cook Counties.

R. J. Howard, of Batavia, Illinois, fieldman for the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, acted as master of ceremonies for the day. A parade of the cattle on exhibit and the discussion of their production and show ring records was given by W. D. Goeke, operating manager, and John H. Brock, business manager. Prof. C. S. Rhode of the dairy science department of the University of Illinois, Urbana, discussed some of the background and results of the breeding program that has been followed since the work started in 1940.

AS PART OF the exhibit at the Open House 18 daughters, all artificially sired, that have completed one or more records had an average actual production of 599.8 lbs. of fat at an average age of 3 years and 3 months.

At the meeting a U. S. D. A. Proved Sire report was given on 80 dam and daughter comparisons for Osborndale Sir Ty-Vic Rag Apple, the first Holstein sire to be brought into the stud as a result of a planned mating. The 80 daughters averaged 13,490 lbs. of milk and 528 lbs. of fat with an average test of 3.9% on a 305 day, twice-a-day milking, mature equivalent basis. This is an increase of 1,297 lbs. of milk and 87 lbs. of fat with 0.3% in test. All 80 of these daughters were artificially produced by the "Northern Illinois" service.

Oak Bend King Bess Perfection, one of the first five Holstein sires used by Illinois farmers in their artificial breeding program, was featured with five 8 year old artificially sired daughters whose average production for all lactations was 580 lbs. of fat and with their best record averaging 683 lbs. of fat, actual production.

The original breeding program included only Holsteins, but since 1946 four other dairy breeds have been added—Guernseys in May of 1946, Brown Swiss in October of 1948, Jerseys in February of 1949, and Milking Shorthorns in July of this year.

Dairyman culls cow giving 400 lbs. butterfat

"Feed the best and cull the rest" has long been recommended by University of Illinois dairymen as one pretty sure way to boost dairy profits.

Don Elliott, Christian County dairyman, follows that recommendation so religiously and has set such high standards for his own herd that he recently culled a cow which ended a 305-day milking record with 9,806 pounds of milk containing 391 pounds of butterfat.

That's about double the production of the average cow in Illinois.

But Christian County Farm Adviser C. S. Love says Elliott has decided not to keep any cow which gives less than 400 pounds of fat a year. Many dairymen would consider Elliott's cow an excellent producer. But she wasn't good enough for Elliott, even though she earned a gross profit of $265 over feed costs.

Last year Elliott's best cow gave 16,100 pounds of milk containing 731 pounds of butterfat. Her profit over feed cost was $590.

Calf care speaker

Calf Care and Herd Management will be discussed by Elmer Hansen, one of America's foremost dairy cattle experts, at the following meetings at 8:00 p. m.

Monday, November 6—Legion Hall, McHenry

Tuesday, November 7 — Schaumburg Hall, Schaumburg

Wednesday, November 8 — Plato Center school, Plato Center

Thursday, November 9—Legion Hall, Hebron

Hansen, formerly professor of dairy husbandry at Iowa State and California Polytechnic Colleges, is general field supervisor for the Curtiss Candy Company Farms Improved Stud Service, artificial breeding program of dairy and beef cattle.

Melvin Johnson, Marengo, will be chairman.

RECORDER OF DEEDS
Term: 4 years
Salary: $9,000 (yearly)

The Cook County Recorder's Office is a fee office and at present is self-sustaining. Accurate records of all fees received are required by statute. Daily reports are submitted to the County Auditor and monthly reports to the Comptroller's office.

In addition to recording deeds and other documents pertaining to real and personal property submitted, it is required by law that the Recorder keep an entry book which includes the description of instruments received, indicating the day and hour of receipt—alphabetical indices of grantor and grantee and an index to recorded maps, plats and subdivisions.

Various methods of recording are permissible—since 1924 PHOTOSTATIC RECORDS have been used in Cook County.
A staff of 304 regular employees will handle the demands of this public office for 1950. The grand total of $1,084,130 is appropriated for all services and expenses.

The Recorder is ex-officio Registrar of Land Titles under the Torrens System, which was adopted by Cook County in 1897. Ninety employees with a pay-roll of $289,200 are included in the 1950 budget for this department alone.

The Administrative and Abstract Division of the Recorder's office employs 212 people with a total of $634,850 for regular salaries.

Salary: $12,000 (yearly)

Voters of the entire county elect the President of the Board of County Commissioners. He must also be elected Commissioner, either by voters in Chicago or voters outside of Chicago as the case may be, depending on which he represents.
This office is considered the most important elective office in Cook County. Although there is no chief executive of Cook County government, as such, the President of the Board has greater administrative power than any other single County official:
He has power to VETO any measure, ordinance, resolution or motion; a four-fifths vote is required to over-ride his veto.
He has power to VETO an ENTIRE APPROPRIATION or ANY ITEM of it.
With the consent of the Board, the President APPOINTS:
—Directors of the Bureau of Public Welfare.
—Heads of all County institutions (except courthouse and jail).
—Superintendent of highways.
—County architect.
—County auditor (must be under civil service).
—Members of the zoning board.
The President has SOLE POWER to appoint the civil service commission.
The President, himself, serves as County Liquor Control Commissioner.

Candidates for County Treasurer

COUNTY TREASURER
Term: 4 years
Salary: $9,960 (yearly)

The County Treasurer is the COUNTY COLLECTOR. Funds are collected by him in Chicago. Revenues collected outside of Chicago are turned over to him by the Township Collectors. All monies paid to him are authorized by law.

Expenditures for the County's bills are authorized by the County Board. Disbursements are made in accordance with the law, some by Court Order under the jurisdiction of the County Court.

The office of County Treasurer was established by the Illinois Constitution. His duties are not clearly defined, but the courts have held that the PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY in the SAFEKEEPING of County Funds is entrusted to the TREASURER himself. He cannot be compelled to deposit county funds in a bank or banks designated by a board of County officials. He is liable on his bond. He is not required to make the funds in his custody earn interest. If interest is earned, he must make an account.

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS authorize the Treasurer to formulate and install, under the direction of the County Board, a uniform system of accounts for County officers. He is required to keep proper books and to make monthly reports of his financial transactions to the County Board.

The total appropriation for this office is $1,785,160 for 1950, of which $1,115,160 is included for regular salaries. There are 387 employees.
THE COUNTY TREASURER MAY NOT SUCCEED HIMSELF IN OFFICE.
